Discovering Christ the Servant Deacon Dominic Cerrato, Ph.D., 2022-03-24 Because Jesus came not to be served but to serve Mk 10:45 his Mystical Body the Church is essentially a servant Church It's precisely through this service that she carries out her mission The ancient diaconate was instituted and has been restored in our time not simply to stand alongside priestly religious and lay ministry but to imbue and empower each with a renewed sense of service Indeed the Greek word diakonia which is translated in English as service can also be translated into the Latin word ministerium translated in English as ministry Thus when we look at episcopal ministry priestly ministry religious ministry or lay ministry service is essential to all Service is not something we do but someone we give our very selves It is an act of love rooted in a divine love already poured out for us This book provides a radical but thoroughly consistent rethinking of the Christian life that takes up the tradition and builds upon it in a way that is both old and new About the Author Deacon Dominic Cerrato Ph.D. is editor of OSV

s The Deacon magazine executive director of Diaconal Ministries and director of the diaconate for the Diocese of Joliet He also offers spiritual direction through the Pastoral Solutions Institute Formerly he served in full time pastoral ministry specializing in adult faith formation In 2020 he was appointed by Pope Francis to the international pontifical commission on women and the diaconate He and his wife Judith have been married for 39 years and they have ten children and many grandchildren
