Informal and friendly corner pub with interesting food, local ales and simple furnishings - a good find

With an easy-going and gently quirky feel, this is a bustling little corner pub in the Old Town and just up from the sea. The simply furnished bar has bare boards, plain chairs around tables inlaid with games and set with posies of flowers, a log fire and plenty of windows to keep everything light (despite the dark paintwork); a snug has leather armchairs in front of another open fire, a couple of tables, and books and house plants on a windowsill and mantelpiece; board games. Stools line the counter where they keep four changing ales from breweries such as Bedlam, Franklins, Old Dairy and Three Legs on handpump, 15 good wines by the glass, 17 gins, 17 whiskies and local cider; service is friendly and helpful. There's a dining area at one end of the bar with scatter cushions on wall seats, mismatched chairs and some sizeable tables. Local art hangs on the walls (some for sale) and on our visit one window was hung with bright neckties and lined with shelves of local pottery, greetings cards and hand-made purses; daily papers and background jazz or blues music. Dogs and children receive a genuinely warm welcome. There are a few picnic-sets at the front.

I As well as good weekend brunches (11am-2pm), the enterprising food includes lunchtime sandwiches on home-made ciabatta, spicy nduja (spreadable Italian pork sausage) and salami hash brown with fried egg and home-made ketchup, sea spinach and wild garlic fritter with tomato and cayenne dip, roast squash and goats cheese wellington with roast root vegetable ratatouille, fish pie with parsley mash, wild mallard (breast, confit leg, crispy wing) with mushrooms, fondant parsnip and gravy, cod fillet with braised carrot and bay purée, and puddings such as cardamom and cinnamon chocolate slice and Sussex honey sponge pudding with vodka toffee sauce and salted caramel ice-cream. Benchmark main dish: local pork chop with suede purée, braised chicory and pan juices £14.00. Two-course evening meal £20.00.
