Generous Man:

The Generous Man Tor Norretranders, 2006-09-29 When it comes to sex Darwin didn't go far enough Whereas his theory of natural selection dictates that species adapt the most efficient and logical traits a streamlined fin ray or a long wingspan Generous Man makes the case that an animal's success sexually depends on developing the least efficient traits Norretranders uses as the central symbol of his theory the peacock's plumage It's cumbersome showy and inefficient and therefore terribly attractive to peahens Put more simply nothing shows a potential mate just how worthy you are as a partner than your ability to be wasteful and inefficient It's like a man with money to burn But money isn't everything humans really measure their worth by doing something that's difficult This is a central though hitherto overlooked factor in evolution In order to win a partner to mate with humans display their best sides We strive for perfection prove we are willing to help others show consideration and go out of our way In other words we are generous This book shows how our nobler traits derive from our need for sex and are in fact the best way to get more of it
