Modern Housing Prototypes Roger Sherwood, 1978 Here are 32 notable examples of multi family housing from many countries selected for their importance as prototypes Designed by such masters as Frank Lloyd Wright Le Corbusier Mies van der Rohe and Alvar Aalto the buildings are illustrated with photographs site plans floor plans elevations and striking axonometric drawings

The Fear of Robachicos in Mexico Susana Sosenski, 2024-08-08 Civil society organizations report that fourteen children disappear every day in Mexico This book studies the origins of this social phenomenon and its consequences not only in the emotional sphere but also in how children have been treated Focusing on children s special positions within Mexican society rather than criminal acts or the implementation of the law Sosenski links social and cultural history the history of crime and fear the application of justice and the media s role childhood and the city to paint a multi dimensional picture of child abduction and its causes Exploring the social impact of child protection policies and the figure of the robachicos or child kidnapper Soneski draws from oral traditions films and books songs and plays all of which embody a culture of fear and danger reported and accentuated by a mass media response The Fear of Robachicos in Mexico focuses on the role of the media and entertainment in the legitimization of violence toward children and the objectification of their lives stripping them of their right to freedom and curtailing their autonomy

Water for All Sarah T. Hines, 2021-12-14 Water for All chronicles how Bolivians democratized water access focusing on the Cochabamba region which is known for acute water scarcity and explosive water protests Sarah T Hines examines conflict and compromises over water from the 1870s to the 2010s showing how communities of water users increased supply and extended distribution through collective labor and social struggle Analyzing a wide variety of sources from agrarian reform case records to oral history interviews Hines investigates how water dispossession in the late nineteenth century and reclaimed water access in the twentieth and twenty first centuries prompted shaped and strengthened popular and indigenous social movements The struggle for democratic control over water culminated in the successful 2000 Water War a decisive turning point for Bolivian politics This story offers lessons for contemporary resource management and grassroots movements about how humans can build equitable democratic and sustainable resource systems in the Andes Latin America and beyond
