material has not been widely available since the 1950s Lafcadio Hearn's America collects Hearn's stories of vagabonds river people mystics criminals and some of the earliest accounts available of black and ethnic urban folklife in America He was a frequently consulted expert on America during his years in Japan and these editorials reflect on the problems and possibilities of American life as the country entered its greatest century Hearn's work which reflects an America that is less melting pot than a varied spicy and often exotic gumbo provide essential background for the study of America's first steps away from its agrarian beginnings
