Weekends with Matt Peter Coleman, 2022-07-26 The peacock's tail is used to describe a wine that is wonderfully complex and ultimately rewarding. Surely there's no better metaphor for life. Weekends with Matt is a classic odd couple tale of two very different men and the common ground that can be found over a shared passion. It was at the bottle shop somewhere between the chardonnay and the zinfandel that Peter realised he didn't have a clue about wine. On his way to a dinner party and in a mild panic he called Matt a wine loving acquaintance who expertly steered him towards the perfect bottle. The selection was a hit but it was Matt's passion that stuck in Peter's mind. He decided to visit Matt's vineyard for an introduction to the noble grape. One visit led to another and this unlikely pairing of a Proust quoting intellectual and a farmer with a love of hunting found themselves bonding over life, ideas, vulnerability, aspiration, nature, philosophy and of course a glass or three of wine. Like a tipsy Tuesday with Morrie, this well-crafted tale is as much a guide to life as the mysteries of wine. With thought-provoking notes and philosophical undertones, this is a delightful story that readers will love to sip and savour.

You won't find Prince Edward County on any map of the world's great wine regions. Yet it is to this dollop of rolling limestone in eastern Lake Ontario that Geoff Heinricks brought his young family in pursuit of a dream of creating a truly world-class wine. The County, as the locals call it, is a long way from the Niagara Peninsula and three thousand miles from Burgundy, yet Heinricks and a few hardy souls like him claim that their wines will one day rival those of the legendary French province. A self-described 21st-century peasant, Heinricks follows the seasons in his vineyards with exquisite attention, from digging the earth to grafting and planting the vines to trellising and pruning to tending the young grapes to harvesting the fruits of his labours. Along the way he sketches the human history of the area: the native peoples whose tools and clay shards are heaved up by the soil and the United Empire Loyalists whose tidy barns and farmhouses still dot the landscape today. He also presents a cast of his colourful County neighbours, from old-school farmers to refugees like him from the city, convinced in the wisdom of producing and consuming locally the very best food and wine in harmony with the land.
