BOOK JACKET Style and Narrative in Translations Hiroko Cockerill, 2014-06-03 Futabatei Shimei 1864-1909 is widely regarded as the founder of the modern Japanese novel His novel Floating Clouds 1887-1889 was written in a colloquial narrative style that was unprecedented in Japanese literature as was its negative hero Futabatei was also a pioneer translator of Russian literature translating works by Turgenev Gogol Tolstoy Gorky and others his translations had an enormous impact perhaps even greater than his novels on the development of Japanese literature In this groundbreaking work Hiroko Cockerill analyses the development of Futabatei's translation style and the influence of his work as a translator on his own writing She takes us on a journey through Russian and Japanese literature throwing light on the development of Japanese literary language particularly in its use of verb forms to convey notions of tense and aspect that were embedded in European languages Cockerill finds that Futabatei developed not one but two distinctive styles based on the influences of Turgenev and Gogol While the influence of his translations from Turgenev was immediate and far reaching his more Gogolian translations are fascinating in their own right and contemporary translators would do well to revisit them

Chinese Theories of Reading and Writing Ming Dong Gu, 2012-02-01 This ambitious work provides a systematic study of Chinese theories of reading and writing in intellectual thought and critical practice The author maintains that there are two major hermeneutic traditions in Chinese literature the politico moralistic mainstream and the metaphysico aesthetical undercurrent In exploring the interaction between the two Ming Dong Gu finds a movement toward interpretive openness In this the Chinese practice anticipates modern and Western theories of interpretation especially literary openness and open poetics Classic Chinese works are examined including the Zhouyi the I Ching or Book of Changes the Shijing the Book of Songs or Book of Poetry and selected poetry along with the philosophical background of the hermeneutic theories Ultimately Gu relates the Chinese practices of reading to Western hermeneutics offering a cross cultural conceptual model for the comparative study of reading and writing in general
