Expository Discourse:

Expository Discourse in Children, Adolescents, and Adults Marilyn A. Nippold, Cheryl M. Scott, 2013-03-07 School success in the 21st century requires proficiency with expository discourse the use and understanding of informative language in spoken and written modalities This occurs for example when high school students read their textbooks and listen to their teachers lectures and later are asked to demonstrate their knowledge of this complex topic through oral reports and essay examinations Although many students are proficient with the expository genre others struggle to meet these expectations This book is designed to provide information on the use and understanding of expository discourse in school age children adolescents and young adults Recently researchers from around the world have been investigating the development of this genre in typical students and in those with language disorders Although many books have addressed the development of conversational and narrative discourse by comparison books devoted to the topic of expository discourse are sparse This crossdisciplinary volume fills that gap in the literature and makes a unique contribution to the study of language development and disorders It will be of interest to a range of professionals including speech language pathologists teachers linguists and psychologists who are concerned with language development and disorders Expository Discourse Beverly Lewin, Jonathan Fine, Lynne Young, 2005-08-01 This volume provides a detailed and explicit account of the genre of social science research articles While previous literature has analyzed some aspects of the research genre separately this book presents a comprehensive model which characterizes the generic registerial and discoursal options as they interweave within a text Modeling Discourse Topic Dionysis Goutsos, 1997 This book is a study of techniques used to introduce continue and change the discourse topic in expository writing Discourse topic is examined by focusing on the sequential techniques and strategies in a step by step process To describe the process a model of sequentiality is proposed The aims of the book are to advance current thinking in discourse analysis and to provide a practical exemplar of expository discourse Joseph Robert E. Longacre, 2003 In this fully revised second edition of Joseph A Story of Divine Providence Robert Longacre approaches the Joseph story as a paradigm for an approach incorporating the interests of the Old Testament scholar and critic with the interests of the contemporary textlinguist His study seeks to explore several questions How does one approach an ancient text What does one hope to gain from its study How do we orient ourselves in regard to this story Does our orientation provide a key to our understanding of the story or does it simply hinder our approaching the story in an unbiased and objective matter The book is comprised of four parts the first three exploring the connection Longacre seeks to establish between textlinguistics and biblical studies The fourth part is a constituent display of the entire Joseph pericope This new edition of Longacre s landmark work incorporates a more user friendly format particularly noticeable in Part 4 Constituent Display of Joseph The book also includes new textlinguistic insights and updated references Biblical researches, a tabulated analysis and investigation of 'the sacred writings.' Vol.1 John Anderson (M.R.C.S.), 1893 The Old & New

Artificial Intelligence Laboratory,O. J. Winghart,1988 Abstract In this paper we describe a computational representation of expository discourse separating the elements of the described situation Roles and Events from those of the exposition itself Saying events The situation elements do not depend on the writer s intentions their interrelations are only due to world concept coherence In particular we propose a new notion of rhetorical relation as mapping of expansions between situation elements rather than one single relation between linguistic units This notion is clearer and easier to recognize than the typical notion On the other hand it is less informative and doesn t induce a structuring on the text
