Kelly,2017-11-01 The title of this collection of essays is Thinking Faith Moods Methods and Mystery and it might need a word of explanation The aim is to suggest something of what is involved in thinking faith while indicating examples of my modest contribution over all these years Given the exuberant data of faith beliefs doctrines and tradition the task of the theologian is always to reflect on what is so richly given and to communicate in the most telling fashion its meaning There are certainly moods that colour the way we think even though theological writing must show an intellectual concentration of some kind That is quite compatible with a great variety of approaches sometimes more hopeful sometimes more sober defensive and argumentative There is also the question of methods The strange thing about a particular theological method or style of thought is that it is seldom an explicit series of procedures It is something more spontaneous and formed through the practices of many years Quite clearly in this collection of writings a number of methods is implied Whatever the mood whatever the method the mystery remains of God Christ and who we are in that light To this degree theology is a way of thinking within mystery not outside it In this respect doing theology is humbling for us theologians when confronted with the limited span of our knowledge and our poor capacities to express it There always remain infinite expanses of what is not yet given us to see so to leave theologians inarticulate in splendid defeat And yet so much has been given even in the most routine life of the Church in its Scriptures its sacraments and in the luminous witness of the many who have gone before us and live now in the light
