Gananath Obeyesekere,1987-01-01 Pattini goddess virgin wife and mother folk deity of Sinhala Buddhists and Jains and assimilated goddess of the Hindu pantheon has been worshiped in Sri Lanka and South India for fifteen hundred years or more as she still is today This long awaited book is the culmination of Gananath Obeyesekere s comprehensive study of the Pattini cult and its historical sociological and psychoanalytical role in the culture of South Asia A well known anthropologist and a native of Sri Lanka Obeyesekere displays his impeccable scholarship and a stunning range of theoretical perspectives in this work the most detailed analysis of a single religious complex in South Asian ethnography and possibly in all of anthropology Since 1955 Obeyesekere has observed and participated in modern performances of the rituals of worship healing and propitiation in the Pattini cult particularly the postharvest ritual known as the gammaduva He presents detailed texts of the gammaduva placing them in their historical and mythic traditions Using the texts he formulates a cultural analysis of the Buddhist pantheon and a critique of empiricist notions of South Asian historiography Obeyesekere shows that some seemingly historical figures of South India and Sri Lanka are mythic characters and that their historical significance can best be understood by an anthropological analysis of myth rather than through a reification of myth in history The concurrent Hindu worship of Pattini with its myths and rituals is described in detail Obeyesekere documents the Sanskritization of Pattini the changing physical structures of the goddess s shrines from the 1930s to the present the assumption by Brahman priests of ritual functions formerly carried out by folk priest and the sociocultural causes of these changes He traces too the origins and diffusion of the cult throughout its entire history as well as its survival today Of psychological interest is the problematic status of Pattini as virgin wife and mother and her relationship with her god husband Palanga and his courtesan Madevi Obeyesekere discusses the psychodynamics of this relationship in detail and explains its role in Hindu Buddhist socialization and family structure Further he uses this analysis to account for local variations in the performance and structure of the ritual The ritual of the killing and resurrection of Pattini s husband and her role as mater dolorosa will interest scholars of comparative religion God's Wife, God's Servant Mariam F. Ayad,2009-06-02 Drawing on textual iconographic and archaeological evidence this book highlights a historically documented but often ignored instance where five single women were elevated to a position of supreme religious authority. The women were Libyan and Nubian royal princesses who consecutively held the title of God's Wife of Amun during the Egyptian Twenty third to Twenty sixth dynasties c 754-525 BCE. At a time of weakened royal authority rulers turned to their daughters to establish and further their authority. Unmarried the princess would be dispatched from her father's distant political.

Their God/S Michael Jean Nystrom-Schut, 2015-11-19. In the mind of each person on the planet a set of notions and ideas of God or gods reside. Some of these systems are basic and simple. Others are highly complex and complicated. Some borrow their God/god notions from authority or from others they know. Others are much more original eclectically piecing together many separate parts from multiple sources. No two people in the world experience and translate God/gods in the same way. And this is what makes things so interesting. As I have encountered this wonderful life I have also bumped up against countless people who were in the position to explain exactly who God was and was not. They were quite sure of themselves and anxious to impart this wisdom to me. But because I had a mind and heart of my own this put me on the outside looking in for much of my life. We all come to a place where we realize we must make our minds up as to what we will and will not do, how we will think and who we will be. As I have encountered them and their God/gods I have found my own way through this foggy maze and discovered a modicum of peace and reconciliation in the process. This is the massive task of all of us as well as why I needed to lay it out to you in this lengthy 2 part book.
