God For Us An Introduction To Lutheran Teaching:

God for Us David Strelan,1988 Lutheranism, Anti-Judaism, and Bach's St. John Passion Michael

Marissen,1998-04-30 Bach's St John Passion is surely one of the monuments of Western music yet performances of it are inevitably controversial In large part this is because of the combination of the powerful and highly emotional music and a text that includes passages from a gospel marked by vehement anti Judaic sentiments What did this masterpiece mean in Bach's day and what does it mean today Although bibliographies on Bach and Judaism have grown enormously since World War II there has been very little work on the relationship between the two areas This is hardly surprising Judaica scholars and culture critics focusing on issues of anti Semitism commonly lack musical training and are in any event quite reasonably interested in even more pressing social and political issues Bach scholars on the other hand have mostly concentrated on narrowly defined musical topics Strangely therefore almost no scholarly attention has been given to relationships between Lutheranism and the religion of Judaism as they affect Bach's most controversial work the St John Passion Through a reappraisal of Bach's work and its contexts Marissen confronts Bach and Judaism directly providing interpretive commentary that could serve as a basis for a more informed and sensitive discussion of this troubling work Consisting of a long interpretive essay followed by an annotated literal translation of the libretto a guide to recorded examples and a detailed bibliography this concise text provides the reader with the tools to assess the work on its own terms and in the appropriate context God's EPIC Adventure Winn Griffin,2007-10 Griffin uses Bishop Tom Wright's five act play model as a way of presenting Scripture as a full length story in order to assist the reader in a better reading experience of the text Christian
