God In A Nutshell:

God in a Nutshell Rex Andrews, 2014-01-14 What have Atheists Christians and Muslims and all other categories in the human race got in common Why despite our shared humanity do so many of us get involved in clashes about religion And why do some of us even fight and kill each other What do you understand by the word God Are humans the creatures of God or is God the invention of mankind How can we make sense of God in a suffering world And finally why do we need to talk and listen to each other The author considers these and many other questions posed by the menacing social and political breakdown in our fragile world community a very welcome contribution to one of the most overheated and often least understood debates in our culture Dr Rowan Williams Refreshingly open honest and direct The author knows the difference between mystery and mystification I would happily recommend this book to my students Rabbi Lionel Blue In this lively sane and vivid book Rex Andrews casts light on real spirituality and reveals the truth behind the obscurities of dogmatism Jonathan Sale The author knows that God is beyond words but this brief guide clears away much of the fog that surrounds the deity and leaves a fresh space for Faith Roger Bolton Conversations with God in a Nutshell , 2014-01-15

Reading and Understanding the Bible from an African Perspective Jerome T. Walsh, 1997 Conversations with God in a Nutshell Neale Donald Walsch, 2019-09-19 The wonder of the nine book Conversations with God body of work is that it contains everything human beings need to know in order to make life on Earth a joyous meaningful and fulfilling experience Perhaps more remarkable it presents this information in terms so clear that it is virtually impossible to misinterpret or misunderstand In this book the three thousand pages of Conversations with God have been reduced to only one thousand words capturing its twenty five core messages This concise statement is then followed by a List of Lists taken directly from the nine texts of the exchange between Divinity and Humanity The result is a communication so profound presented in a way so easy to comprehend that it could help alter life as we know it forever for the better Leaves of Healing , 1924 Let God Be God Ray C. The question of divine agency in the world remains one important unresolved underlying obstacle in the dialogue between theology and science Modern notions of divine agency are shown to have developed out of the interaction of three factors in early modernity Two are well known late medieval perfect being theology and the early modern application of the notion of the two books of God s revelation to the understanding of the natural order It is argued the third is the early modern appropriation of the Augustinian doctrine of inspiration This assumes the soul s existence and a particular description of divine agency in humans which became more generally applied to divine agency in nature Whereas Newton explicitly draws the parallel between divine agency in humans and that in nature Darwin rejects its supposed perfection and Huxley raises serious questions regarding the traditional understanding of the soul This book offers an alternative incarnational description of divine agency freeing consideration of divine agency from being dependent on resolving the complex issues of perfect being theology and the existence of the soul In conversation with Barth s pneumatology this proposal is shown to remain theologically coherent and plausible while resolving or avoiding a range of known difficulties in the science theology dialogue
