Michigan Christian Advocate, 1920 Remythologizing Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2010-01-14 The rise of modern science and the proclaimed death of God in the nineteenth century led to a radical questioning of divine action and authorship Bultmann's celebrated demythologizing Remythologizing Theology moves in another direction that begins by taking seriously the biblical accounts of God's speaking It establishes divine communicative action as the formal and material principle of theology and suggests that interpersonal dialogue rather than impersonal causality is the keystone of God's relationship with the world This original contribution to the theology of divine action and authorship develops a fresh vision of Christian theism It also revisits several long standing controversies such as the relations of God's sovereignty to human freedom time to eternity and suffering to love Groundbreaking and thought provoking it brings theology into fruitful dialogue with philosophy literary theory and biblical studies You Will Be My Witnesses Brian A.
