Daniel Bergner

God Of The Rodeo:

God of the Rodeo Daniel Bergner, 2011-02-09 Never before had Daniel Bergner seen a spectacle as bizarre as the one he had come to watch that Sunday in October Murderers rapists and armed robbers were competing in the annual rodeo at Angola the grim maximum security penitentiary in Louisiana The convicts sentenced to life without parole were thrown trampled and gored by bucking bulls and broncos before thousands of cheering spectators But amid the brutality of this gladiatorial spectacle Bergner caught surprising glimpses of exaltation hints of triumphant skill The incongruity of seeing hope where one would expect only hopelessness self control in men who were there because they had none sparked an urgent quest in him Having gained unlimited and unmonitored access Bergner spent an unflinching year inside the harsh world of Angola He forged relationships with seven prisoners who left an indelible impression on him There s Johnny Brooks seemingly a latter day Stepin Fetchit who while washing the warden s car longs to be a cowboy and to marry a woman he meets on the rodeo grounds Then there s Danny Fabre locked up for viciously beating a woman to death now struggling to bring his reading skills up to a sixth grade level And Terry Hawkins haunted nightly by the ghost of his victim a ghost he tries in vain to exorcise in a prison church that echoes with the cries of convicts talking in tongues Looming front and center is Warden Burl Cain the larger than life ruler of Angola who quotes both Jesus and Attila the Hun declares himself a prophet and declaims that redemption is possible for even the most depraved criminal Cain welcomes Bergner in and so begins a journey that takes the author deep into a forgotten world and forces him to question his most closely held beliefs The climax of his story is as unexpected as it is wrenching Rendered in luminous prose God of the Rodeo is an exploration of the human spirit yielding in the process a searing portrait of a place that will be impossible to forget and a group of men guilty of unimaginable crimes desperately seeking a moment of grace

God of the Rodeo Daniel Bergner, 1998 Traces a year in the lives of six convicts at Louisiana s most fearsome maximum security prison and reveals both the brutality of their lives and their human emotions as they compete in the annual prison rodeo

The World ,1999 The Faith of a Religionist Herb Gruning, 2024-10-24 Mixing fiction with non fiction the author takes the reader on a ride through what irks him enough to write about first in religion theology and then in science and includes the ideas that Abraham is a model for relating to God an anti dualistic bias is superior to the belief in the survival of the soul the insistence that scripture is to be defended at all costs the notion that theology can be systematized the doctrine of the paradoxical atonement is simply a matter of faith humans have no bearing on climate evolution can only occur gradually purity of race is an attainable goal there is no serious competitor to materialism mediums and spiritists are reliable guides to what the afterlife holds and artificial intelligence poses little threat The short stories are provided to offer lighter fare to the weightier topics in the non fiction sections The second such story has also been adapted into a film posted on YouTube
