Medicinal Plants of Northern Thailand for the Treatment of Cognitive Impairment in the Elderly Lisa Offringa, 2014-11-21
This book provides a description of cognitive impairment in the elderly population through the lens of Thai Traditional Medicine as it is practiced in northern Thailand. It provides an overview of Thai Traditional Medicine and the memory loss presented in elderly dementia. Some medicinal plants used by traditional Thai healers to treat cognitive decline and memory issues in the elderly are reviewed. Medicinal Plants of Northern Thailand for the Treatment of Cognitive Impairment in the Elderly provides readers with the detailed description of the in vitro screening of ten plants and those results. The bioactivity of these single plants exemplifies the success of using an ethnobotanical filter to identify plants with cognitive enhancing activity.

The Hymns of the Atharva-Veda, 1896 Formulaic Language and New Data Elisabeth Piirainen, Natalia Filatkina, Sören Stumpf, Christian Pfeiffer, 2020-01-20
The existence of formulaic patterns has been attested to all languages of the world. However, systematic research in this field has been focused on only a few European standard languages with a rich literary tradition and a high degree of written norm. It was on the basis of these data that the theoretical framework and methodological approaches were developed. The volume shifts this focus by centering the investigation on new data including data from lesser used languages and dialects, extra-European languages, linguistic varieties mostly used in spoken domains as well as at previous historical stages of language development. Their inclusion challenges the existing postulates at both a theoretical and methodological level. Areas of interest include the following questions: What is formulaic in these types of languages, varieties, and dialects? Are the criteria developed within the framework of phraseological research applicable to new data? Can any specific types of formulaic patterns and/or any specific features of regular, already known types of formulaic patterns be observed and how do they emerge? What methodological difficulties need to be overcome when dealing with new data?

A Call to Commitment Thomas Karimundackal,2017-10-01 Deuteronomy 10 12 11 32 is a very important text for the book of Deuteronomy However it has not received an adequate exegetical treatment so far The present study intends to meet this need Following a synchronic approach Thomas Karimundackal examines the text exegetically and theologically in its context He analyzes the text extensively by referring to its intense relationships within Deuteronomy and with other biblical books He shows how Deuteronomy 10 12 11 32 serves as a hermeneutical key to understand and interpret the theology of Deuteronomy As a transitional passage it connects the former framework and the Law Code in Deuteronomy and thus forms a bridge In addition it is repeatedly connected to the latter framework of Deuteronomy and thus proves to be a hermeneutical key to the book From a theological point of view the unique statements about God in Deut 10 stand out The author also reflects on the role of the community and the contemporary relevance of the text
