Evening Chore Poems:

Evening Chore Shari Wagner, 2005 In Evening Chore augmented by John Domont's striking cover art Wagner takes us with her to the far pasture that borderland where at dusk the known meets the unknown where details are at once familiar and mysterious where a kill deer plain collared plover of open fields circles above us with the pull of ocean in its flight

Poetry Night at the Ballpark and Other Scenes from an Alternative America Bill Kauffman, 2015-06-15 Bill Kauffman has carved out an idiosyncratic identity quite unlike any other American writer Praised by the likes of Gore Vidal Benjamin Schwarz and George McGovern he has with a distinctive and slashingly witty learnedly allusive style illumined forgotten corners of American history articulated a defiant and passionate localism and written with love and dark humor of his repatriation Poetry Night at the Ballpark gathers the best of Bill Kauffman's essays and journalism in defense and explication of his alternative America or Americas Its discrete pieces are bound by a thematic unity and propulsive energy and are full of unexpected yet startlingly apposite connections and revelatory linkages Whether he's writing about conservative Beats backyard astronomers pacifist West Pointers or Middle America in the movies Bill Kauffman will challenge maybe even change the way you look at American politics and the American provinces Modern American Poetry Harold Bloom, 2005 The essays collected in this volume survey the major works of modern American poetry from magnificent epics like Hart Crane's The Bridge and Wallace Stevens's Auroras of Autumn to such central lyrics as Eliot's The Love Song of J Alfred Prufrock and Marianne Moore's Poetry the complexity of modern American poetry has demanded appreciation and analysis of an especially high order and the list of critics included here makes up a veritable all star team of close readers from Kenneth Burke to Helen Vendler from Richard Poirier to David Bromwich The Magazine of Poetry, 1893 Taking Root in the Heart Jill Peláez Baumgaertner, 2023-03-21 A new collection from the best and most prolific poets published in the Christian Century over the past twenty five years The 34 poets whose work appears defy the narcissistic tendencies of so much contemporary poetry They do not necessarily express a particular orthodoxy but they do connect with something larger than the self Theirs is poetry that attempts to revitalize language especially theological language It is poetry that attempts to upset the usual modes of expression and offers up new angles of vision especially in regard to biblical stories For most of the poets though not all by any means Jesus is the Word made flesh and the Incarnation is the paradigm as poets attempt to en flesh the abstract make the spirit tangible and put into words the unsayable Poets have a way of taking on what utterly cannot be done And those are the poems that should appear in a journal of religious news and reflection The poetic approaches and styles of the work of these poets are immensely varied from the masterful narratives of Sydney Lea to the finely wrought lyrics of Charles Hughes to the always edgy and surprising poems of Bill Stadick to the most imagistic and prolific work of Luci Shaw to the provocative poems of Christian Wiman Then there are the superb sonnets of Gracia Grindal and Angela Alaimo O'Donnell and the compelling explorations of the deep spirituality of the everyday that comprise Tania Runyan's vision. The poems in the journal often explore biblical themes, doctrinal issues or theological conundrums. But many of the poems that appear in the Christian Century present human experience or encounters with the natural world that do not seem on the surface religious but reveal a deep humanity at the core. What defines all of these poems is a commitment to communicating with readers seeking truth, beauty and authenticity. Watch the Book Trailer HERE

The Golden Treasury of Poetry and Song Henry Troth Coates, 1905 One Hundred Choice Selections in Poetry and Prose Phineas Garrett, 1878 One Hundred Choice Selections in Poetry and Prose, No. 1 Nathaniel Kirk Richardson, 1884 The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24

Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century, Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer. Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in-depth examination of Carver's poems, making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer. Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics, a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the inter-relatedness of biological and cultural systems. This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production, and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer. Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers, situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition, explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories, and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness. Tellingly, Carver's poetry, which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars, is frequently taught to medical students. This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine.

The novel A Cottage in Akin is fifty-nine-year-old Ponia Snow's reminiscent and pivotal story of life in the small northeastern Colorado town of Akin. Odessa Luckett, poet, storyteller, gardener, extraordinaire, and woman of faith, transforms Ponia's life forever through exemplifying God's love, mercy, and forgiveness. Had it not been for that dear old woman, Ponia may not have survived, nor would she have traced the God-ordained design for her life.
