Van Gogh and the Artists He Loved Steven Naifeh, 2021-11-02 The compelling story of how Vincent van Gogh developed his audacious iconic style by immersing himself in the work of others featuring hundreds of paintings by Van Gogh as well as the artists who inspired him from the New York Times bestselling co-author of Van Gogh: The Life Important inspires us to look at Van Gogh and his art afresh Dr Chris Stolwijk general director RKD Netherlands Institute for Art History Vincent van

Gogh's paintings look utterly unique; his vivid palette and boldly interpretive portraits are unmistakably his. Yet however revolutionary his style may have been, it was actually built on a strong foundation of paintings by other artists, both his contemporaries and those who came before him. Now drawing on Van Gogh's own thoughtful and often profound comments about the painters he venerated, Steven Naifeh gives a gripping account of the artist's deep engagement with their work. We see Van Gogh's gradual discovery of the subjects he would make famous, from wheat fields to sunflowers. We watch him experimenting with the loose brushwork and bright colors used by Édouard Manet, studying the Pointillist dots used by Georges Seurat, and emulating the powerful depictions of the peasant farmers painted by Jean-François Millet, all vividly illustrated in nearly three hundred full-color images of works by Van Gogh and a variety of other major artists, including Claude Monet, Paul Gauguin, and Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec, positioned side by side. Thanks to the vast correspondence from Van Gogh to his beloved brother Theo, Naifeh, a Pulitzer Prize winner, is able to reconstruct Van Gogh's artistic world from within. Observed in eloquent prose that is as compelling as it is authoritative, Van Gogh and the Artists He Loved enables us to share the artist's journey as he created his own daring, influential, and widely beloved body of work. The Essential Abrams, 1999-02-01 The Essential Vincent Van Gogh Ingrid Schaffner, Vincent Van Gogh André Krauss, 1987

The Architecture of Nothingness Frank Lyons, 2018-09-18 Shortlisted for the Architectural Book Awards 2024. It is a common enough assumption that good buildings make us feel good, just as poor ones can make us feel insecure, depressed, or even threatened. We may instantly decide that we like one building more than another, in the same way that, without thinking, we choose one work of art or music over another. But what is going on when we make these instant decisions? The process is so complex that it remains an area rarely examined, often considered unfathomable, or for some, mysterious, bordering even on the spiritual. Frank Lyons seeks to unpick the complex relationships that go to make up great works of architecture, to reveal a set of principles that are found to apply not only to architecture but also to art, music, and culture in general. One of the major complications at the heart of culture is that, because the arts are generated subjectively, it is assumed that the finished cultural artefact is also subjective. This is a myth that this book seeks to dispel. The arts are indeed created from the personal, subjective space of an individual, but what that individual has to say will only be shareable if expressed in coherent, objective form. In a nutshell, the book reverses two generally accepted positions: that the arts are subjective and that meaning is objective and therefore shared. The reversal of these seemingly common-sense but mistaken positions enables two important issues to be resolved: firstly, it explains how the arts communicate through objectivity, and secondly, how the meaning of an object of art is never shared but always remains private to the individual. The combination of these two positions ultimately helps us to understand that beauty is a subjective appreciation of an objectively arranged form. Furthermore, this understanding enables the author to explain how a sublimely arranged form can open us to the ineffable, to a field of NOTHINGNESS, or to what some might call the spiritual realm of our own being.
