Liebman,2021-04-06 This book an examination of Judaism as it evolved over a period of approximately 1 500 years is an analysis of the Hebrew Bible and other ancient Jewish writings with special emphasis on theology and morality By the middle of the first millennium with the writing of Deuteronomy the Psalms and the works of the prophets Judaism had embraced the idea that God is a compassionate father that His relationship with His people is based on love rather than fear and that His response to their commission of sins is based on the assumption that they are capable of repentance and worthy of forgiveness In the final stage of its development culminating in the first and second centuries AD Judaism was understood to require its adherents to enact the will of God specifically to establish a community based on political economic and social laws that enforce the principles of justice and mercy And that process came to be seen as inevitably dependent on human agency the need for human beings to fulfill God s commandments In Judaism loving neighbors and strangers came to be understood as the principal and for many Jews the only way of loving God The Theology of the Later Pauline Letters Andrew T. Lincoln,A. J. M. Wedderburn,1993-06-03 An accessible introduction to the chief themes and contem porary relevance of the Letters to Ephesus and Colossae Secrecy and Esoteric Writing in Kabbalistic Literature Jonathan V. Dauber,2022-08-24 Secrecy and Esoteric Writing in Kabbalistic Literature examines the strategies of esoteric writing that Kabbalists have used to conceal secrets in their writings such that casual readers will only understand the surface meaning of their texts while those with greater insight will grasp the internal meaning In addition to a broad description of esoteric writing throughout the long literary history of Kabbalah this work analyzes kabbalistic secrecy in light of contemporary theories of secrecy It also presents case studies of esoteric writing in the work of four of the first kabbalistic authors Abraham ben David Isaac the Blind Ezra ben Solomon and Asher ben David and thereby helps recast our understanding of the earliest stages of kabbalistic literary history The book will interest scholars in Jewish mysticism and Jewish philosophy as well as those working in medieval Jewish history Throughout Jonathan V Dauber has endeavored to write an accessible work that does not require extensive prior knowledge of kabbalistic thought Accordingly it finds points of contact between scholars of various religious traditions The International Journal of Apocrypha ,1909 Signs of the Times, and Doctrinal Advocate and Monitor ,1903 Moral Biblical Gleanings and Practical Teachings Isaac Lindo Mocatta,1872 Our Hymns and Their Authors Methodist Episcopal Church, South,Wilbur Fisk Tillett,1892 New Testament Theology, Or, Historical Account of the Teaching of Jesus and of Primitive Christianity According to the New Testament Sources Willibald Beyschlag,1908 An Help for the Ignorant; or, an essay towards an easy, ... explication of the Assembly's Shorter Catechism.
