PHOTOGRAPH: A VISUAL AND CULTURAL HISTORY. Graham Clarke,1997 A Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry of Great Britain Sir Bernard Burke,1914 A genealogical and heraldic history of the landed gentry of Great Britain & Ireland Bernard Burke,1906 Elizabeth Barrett Browning Margaret Forster,2012-09-30 This biography of Elizabeth Barrett Browning written with reference to Browning correspondence only recently available argues that the poet was a strong and determined woman largely responsible for her own incarceration in Wimpole Street The author traces her life from her early childhood and adolescence and explores her marriage She draws a picture of early Victorian family life and aims to show that Elizabeth was a considerable and dedicated poet self willed witty and courageous Forster has also edited the companion volume Selected Poems of Elizabeth Barrett Browning and is author of several other biographies

Coates's Herd Book Henry Strafford,1922 Graham Clarke Clare Sydney,Graham Clarke,1985 Welsh Armorial Porcelain Howell G. M. Edwards,2022-05-05 Armorial porcelains comprised the output of most European ceramics factories in the 18th and 19th Centuries in response to the large quantity of armorial porcelain services that were being imported from China bearing the coats of arms and crests of aristocratic families Whereas these armorial services have been identified and covered for most porcelain manufactories the information relevant to their production by the two relatively short lived Nantgarw and Swansea China Works has not been addressed as a theme until now As an integral component of the holistic forensic appraisal of porcelain a functional and decorative artwork manifestly part of our cultural heritage and its ongoing preservation the recording and identification of such artefacts is material for the future establishment of a database of factory production The Nantgarw and Swansea factories only operated for a limited period in the second decade of the 19th Century and their porcelains were much appreciated for their high quality and desirability by Georgian households Today examples are to be found in many museums and ceramics collections and continue to excite the interest of specialists and the general public This text provides the first comprehensive assessment of armorial porcelains from these two factories and the methodology and procedure for the identification of unknown armorial bearings and crests is illustrated individual bearings are discussed in detail and existing incorrect assignments in the literature are re appraised The difficulties in attribution of armorial heraldic achievements that are only minimally depicted are considered and directions for further studies using historical documentation are invoked This book therefore fills a currently existing gap in the ceramics literature of the 19th Century Gloucestershire and North Bristol Soldiers on the Somme Nick Thornicroft,2007-06-01 When war broke out in 1914 there was a widespread sense of optimism among the British public Fired by patriotic fervour and pride in their nation many were convinced that it would all be over by Christmas and young men rushed to join the army and share in the honour and glory of war These illusions were swiftly lost as a war of attrition developed advances on both sides were small and casualties high Even with this background the slaughter on 1 July 1916 of thousands of British soldiers who went over the top to their deaths on the Somme shocked a world increasingly conditioned to the realities of armed conflict Nick Thornicroft delves into the heart of the British Army on the blackest day in its history and gives a vivid portrayal of Gloucestershire soldiers in the heat of battle these ordinary men in extraordinary circumstances fighting with incredible bravery for their country s future Through assiduous research and compassion for his subject Nick Thornicroft has woven the experiences of Gloucestershire and North Bristol s soldiers into the wider military story and in doing so brings a human aspect to one of the most inhuman battles in history Kelly's Handbook to the Titled, Landed & Official Classes ,1901
