The Reader's Adviser Sarah L. Prakken, 1974 Professional Guide for Use in the Junior-senior High School Library American Library and Educational Service Co, 1970 A Sort of Life Graham Greene, 1971 Graham Greene's long journey through time began in 1904 when he was born into a tribe of Greenes based in Berkhamstead at the public school where his father was headmaster In A Sort of Life Greene recalls schooldays and Oxford adolescent encounters with psychoanalysis and Russian roulette his marriage and conversion to Catholicism and how he rashly resigned from The Times when his first novel The Man Within was published in 1929 A Sort of Life reveals brilliantly and compellingly a life lived and an art obsessed by the dangerous edge of things The Life of the Author: Graham Greene Andrew James, 2025-08-19 Exploring the creative mind of Graham Greene a metafictional study of a literary icon Graham Greene's novels offer more than gripping narratives they are a window into the author's creative obsessions The Life of the Author Graham Greene presents a groundbreaking study that unveils the intimate connection between Greene's life and work using metafictional analysis to reveal the evolution of his views on authorship and storytelling Moving beyond conventional critical interpretations literary scholar Andrew James invites readers to discover how Greene saw himself within his fiction and how his self-perception shaped his literary masterpieces Written with both depth and accessibility this illuminating book delves into Greene's disciplined creative process his struggles with self-doubt and his playful yet profound engagement with the craft of writing Organized thematically The Life of the Author focuses on Greene's post-1940 works where his identity as a writer solidified making his novels rich with autobiographical undertones Throughout the text James offers new insights into Greene's novels while connecting recurring themes to his personal and creative growth An innovative exploration of one of the twentieth century's most enigmatic authors The Life of the Author Graham Greene Examines Greene's novels through the lens of metafiction to offer a fresh perspective on his craft Presents detailed literary analyses that reveal the self-reflective nature of Greene's storytelling Focuses on Greene's authorial identity tracing his growth as a writer from neutral observer to committed advocate Concentrates on Greene's major novels while avoiding exhaustive academic overviews to promote independent critical discovery Discusses the metafictional significance of Greene's novels and entertainments Enriching appreciation for Greene's artistry while exploring metafictional approaches in literary biography The Life of the Author Graham Greene is ideal for university courses in 20th century British literature biography and literary theory particularly at introductory and intermediate levels Scholars students and avid readers of Greene will find it an invaluable resource for understanding the interplay between an author's life and their creative output The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
