Grammars of Faith P. F. Bloemendaal, 2006 D Z Phillips is a leading figure in advocating a Wittgensteinian approach to the philosophical study of religion His writings exert an important influence on contemporary philosophy of religion giving a new direction to the philosophical discussion of religious belief and practice Although his work has prompted much often critical comment a thorough investigation has not been forthcoming Grammars of Faith fills that gap The book pays close attention to Wittgenstein's own remarks on religious belief arranging them against the background of his broader philosophical methodology as well as to the efforts of the early Wittgensteinians at providing a more comprehensive Wittgensteinian philosophy of religion Central to this study are Phillips's understanding of philosophical enquiry as a form of contemplation and his descriptive accounts of religious belief By means of a careful and methodical examination of Phillips s oeuvre the study seeks to present a fair assessment of Phillips s position showing not only its weaknesses but also its strength
