Mahnke,1999-08 Conceptual Structures: Broadening the Base Harry S. Delugach,Gerd Stumme,2003-05-15 We are pleased to bring you this collection of papers for the Ninth International Conference on Conceptual Structures ICCS representing continued excellence in conceptual structures research We have adopted the title Broadening the Base acknowledging the importance of contributions from scholars in many research areas The first ICCS meetings focused primarily on Sowa's conceptual graphs in recent years however the ICCS conference series has intentionally widened its scope to stimulate research across domain boundaries We hope that this stimulation is further enhanced by ICCS 2001 continuing the long tradition of lively conferences about Conceptual Structures We wish to express our appreciation to all the authors of submitted papers to the general chair to the members of the editorial board and the program committee and to the additional reviewers for making ICCS 2001 a valuable contribution to the knowledge processing research field We would also like to acknowledge the leadership of Guy Mineau and Bernhard Ganter in providing a solid framework for an open and effective reviewing process Very special thanks go to the local organizers for making the conference possible and furthermore an enjoyable and inspiring event We are grateful to the University of Alabama in Huntsville and the University of Karlsruhe for their generous support
