The Reformation

The Reformation was a major religious movement in the 16th century that led to the creation of Protestant churches. It began in 1517 when Martin Luther posted his 95 Theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany. Luther's ideas challenged the authority of the Pope and the Catholic Church's practices, such as the sale of indulgences. Other reformers like John Calvin and Huldreich Zwingli also played significant roles in the movement. The Reformation led to the establishment of new churches and the eventual split of Western Christianity into Catholic and Protestant branches.

- Martin Luther's 95 Theses
- John Calvin's Geneva
- Huldreich Zwingli's Zurich
- The English Reformation
- The Protestant Reformation
- The Catholic Reformation

The Reformation had a profound impact on European society, leading to the rise of individualism and the decline of the Catholic Church's power. It also led to the development of new religious and political ideas, such as the concept of the individual's direct relationship with God. The Reformation was a key event in the history of the modern world, shaping the course of European civilization and the development of the modern nation-state.
