First Words A Memoir:

The Memoirs of Toussaint and Isaac Louverture Arthur F. Saint-Aubin, 2015-07-15 This book examines the memoir of Toussaint Louverture a former slave general in the French army and leader of the Haitian Revolution and the memoir of his son Isaac The Revolution and its leaders have been studied and written about extensively Until recently 2004 however the memoir of Toussaint has received little attention and only as a historical document This is the first study that explores the 1802 work foremost as a literary text a creative production that deploys the techniques of fiction and drama to make truth claims about the past moreover this is the first book length study of Isaac Louverture s memoir The two texts are read as examples of how black men thought of themselves as men citizens and therefore how they expressed their masculinity at that historical moment as experiences of mourning and loss This study builds upon three areas of scholarship the tradition of memoir writing historicist readings of Toussaint s memoir and descriptions and theories of men and masculinity within the black Atlantic The study distinguishes itself in ways that will make it of interest to more than just historians in addition to using the intersection of race and masculinity as an analytical tool it speaks to the nature of literary creativity and it draws from studies examining the relationship between history memory and fiction As a result scholars and students in literary and cultural criticism as well as those in gender and diasporic studies will also find this study of interest and value

A Memoir of Daniel Wadsworth Coit of Norwich, Connecticut, 1787-1876 William C. Gilman,1908 Coit made drawings during his travels as a merchant He spent business time in South America and in Europe Coit reached California in 1849 at the start of the Gold Rush His letters and sketches were some of the earliest views of San Francisco at that time In 1852 he returned to Connecticut Children of the Book Ilana Kurshan,2025-08-26 A mother s celebration of the power and wonder of lifelong reading Zibby Owens My Most Anticipated Books 2025 In Children of the Book Ilana Kurshan reveals how literature weaves an invisible thread through the tapestry of family life Kurshan a mother of five living in Jerusalem struggles to balance her passion for books with her responsibilities as a parent Gradually she learns how to relate to reading not as a solitary pursuit and an escape from the messiness of life but rather as a way of forging connection and teaching independence Introducing her children to sacred and secular literature including the beloved classics of her childhood she becomes both a better mother and a more compassionate reader Chief among the books Kurshan reads with her children is the Torah whose ancient wisdom illuminates her family s path Structured in five parts corresponding to the first five books of the Bible this memoir traces the profound parallels between the biblical narrative and the daily rhythms of parenthood from the first picture books that create the world through language for little babies to the bittersweet moment our children begin reading on their own leaving us behind atop the mountain as they enter new lands without us A luminous meditation on how shared stories become the foundation for family bonds Children of the Book celebrates a life richly lived through literature
