Guns and Poses Paul L. Moorcraft,2001 Paul Moorcraft has covered most of the wars of the last quarter of the 20th century on four continents An experienced war correspondent he shows here the other often lighter side of the major conflicts of our time from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe More interested in flying buttresses than flying bullets the dangers are underplayed as the writer is constantly distracted by bizarre characters strange places odd traditions disturbing food and his constant habit of being sucked into eccentric debate with the locals The Cosmopolitan ,1891 Fort Macon Paul R. Democratic Education in an Armed Society Samantha Deane,2023-11-21 Democratic Education in an Armed Society Learning to Live with Guns examines the points of intersection between school gun violence and democratic education Samantha Deane explores the connection between how we teach children to think of themselves as democratic actors and the unceasing plague of gun violence Juxtaposing two images of political agency Deane connects an essentialized view of humans as masters of themselves objects and history with discourses that aim to train individuals to be autonomous and rational users of objects like guns This liberal view gives us no way to think about how objects narratives and norms contour the selves we claim to be Deane suggests that we must learn to attend to the ways in which our ability to act in the world is shared and distributed In a society shot through with guns and enamored with individualism the future of associational life depends on whether we learn to do democracy with the objects we hold dear A City Divided: Race, Fear and the Law in Police Confrontations David A. Harris,2020-01-10 A City Divided tells the story of the case involving 18 year old Jordan Miles and three Pittsburgh police officers David Harris a resident of Pittsburgh and the Sally Ann Semenko Chair at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law describes what happened explaining how a case that began with a young black man walking around the block in his own neighborhood turned Pittsburgh inside out resulted in two investigations of the police officers and two federal trials Harris who has written published and conducted research at the intersection of race criminal justice and the law for almost thirty years explains not just what happened but why what the stakes are and most importantly what we must do differently to avoid these public safety catastrophes National Service ,1917 *California.
