Goodbye To All That Uab:

When God Works... Amy Rogers,2023-05-22 It s just a normal afternoon when Amy s life takes a completely different turn when she is carjacked in broad daylight A million thoughts race through her head as she is held at gunpoint in her own vehicle But God is there in the midst and gives her peace clarity and a sound mind to survive Things did not turn out like she wanted but God was with her He would continue to carry her throughout the difficult time to come A few years later she and her husband wanted to start a family After many months of trying to conceive Amy s dream of carrying a child was crushed You will read how God carried her once again through another tragic time God shows her again that He is in control and has a plan for her life You ll see a perfect picture of the gospel as she shares the adoption stories of her two beautiful boys Amy s story reminds us that God is always at work even in the midst of our deepest pain Angels Among Us. . .Even in Iraq Diane Hassan,2008 In a highly entertaining fashion the American wife of a prominent member of Saddam Hussein s political hierarchy chronicles her life in Iraq until she and her family dramatically escape after an attempted assassination of her husband during Saddam s purge following Desert Storm Motivation Letters From The Suitcase Cal Finnigan,Rosheen Finnigan,2017-06-15 THE LETTERS FROM THE SUITCASE by Rosheen and Cal Finnigan reveals the detailed and poignant wartime romance between David and Mary Francis For readers of Sheila Hancock s MISS CARTER S WAR or Helen Simonson s MAJOR PETTIGREW S LAST STAND I still have that recurring fear of something happening to me before I see you again and before I can tell you myself just how much and how often I ve realised during the last few months that I love you completely and to the exclusion of all others Remember that because if there wasn t you my darling Mary the world would seem very empty and meaningless Mary and David Francis were only twenty one and nineteen when they met in 1938 They fell in love instantly and against the wishes of David s parents they lived together and married in secret These poignant letters reveal their intelligence and thoughtfulness their passion the everyday details of their lives working as a secretary at Bletchley Park and as a young officer in action on the other side of the world and Mary s experience of bringing up a small baby alone in London David was to die in India five years after their first encounter though his letters continued to reach Mary long after the event At heart this is the story of a young couple who were utterly devoted to one another It is also the story of a father that Rosheen Finnigan never knew but came to love Work-Life Balance: Essential or Ephemeral? Andreas Schwingshackl,Stephania A. Cormier,Kanwaljeet J. S. Anand,2017-09-28 Burn out and suicide rates among physicians and scientists in academic medicine are at an all time high and jeopardize the future of our entire profession In the last 4 years alone burn out rates among physicians have increased by 25% In a recent 2017 Medscape publication burn out rates in Critical Care physicians ranked in 9th place and Pediatricians ranked 13th among 27 subspecialties Astonishingly over 50% of the participants reported burn out symptoms with clear race and gender disparities While men generally report higher burn out rates than women it is important to emphasize that response rates from women in these surveys were notoriously low and may not represent the complete picture. These numbers are even more dismal for tenured academic faculty at research extensive universities. In this group emotional exhaustion i.e. high burn out is reported at 35% with a clear association with age and lower burn out levels in the older tenured faculty. While no gender or racial/ethnic differences were found in this particular group, higher levels of burn out were identified in individuals with financial responsibilities beyond a spouse and child. While it is comforting to note the increasing public interest and research activities in this field, successful approaches to ameliorate the burden and consequences of physician burn out are still inadequately developed. Academic centers increasingly offer some type of work life balance program to their employees but unfortunately these programs are frequently adopted from corporate business models and remain largely ineffective in the academic environment. It should be evident to most administrators that the stressors of academic clinicians and scientists substantially differ from those of corporate employees. Based on these observations and over 75 years of combined experience in academic medicine amongst the three editors of this Research Topic, we collected 26 manuscripts from 22 authors at different career stages and different genders, ethnicities, marital status and subspecialties to identify and stratify common and specific stressors and therapeutic approaches to ameliorate burn out and achieve work life balance in academic medicine. We are confident that each reader will identify with at least one if not several of the authors' opinions, experiences and approaches to attain greater work life balance and thereby avoid the consequences of burn out in modern academic medicine.

Recollections on a Road Between Edward J. Dupuy, 2024-12-19

Autobiographers typically mine memory to write of a struggle for place. For some that place is wealth, fame, or power. For others it's overcoming the wounds of addiction or an abusive past to find a place of stability. As compelling as those stories can be, this autobiography is different. Dupuy comes from a large, intact Catholic family in which he was well cared for. While he explores memory and writes of a struggle for place, he finds place and person not necessarily within but between established boundaries. He restlessly explores spaces between and among narratives of family, nation, career, religion, and culture. And he finds glimpses of an elusive and wounded subject himself. A strong sense of longing, a sense of not quite being at home, a type of woundedness pervades his story. Such places reveal themselves to him not as deficits, not something to be corrected and set straight; instead, he sees them as a sort of home despite their shaky between nature In these spaces new contours of self others and world have opened to him
