Escape From China:

Escape From China Zhang Boli, 2008-06-30 Who can forget the images telecast worldwide of brave Chinese students facing down tanks in Tiananmen Square as they took on their Communist government After a two week standoff in 1989 military forces suppressed the revolt killing many students and issuing arrest warrants for top student leaders including Zhang Boli After two years as a fugitive Zhang the only leader to elude capture knew that he must bid his beloved country as well as his wife and baby daughter farewell Traveling across the frozen terrain of the former Soviet Union where peasants rescued him and through the deserted lands of China s precarious borders Zhang had only his extraordinary will to propel him toward freedom As told in Escape from China a work of great historical resonance his story will renew your faith in the human spirit

The Morality of China in Africa Professor Stephen Chan, 2013-05-09 Edited with authority by the influential and respected Stephen Chan this unique collection of essays gathers together for the first time both African and Chinese perspectives on China s place in Africa The book starts with an excellent introductory essay from Stephen Chan written in his usual elegant prose and featuring some very fresh insights organised with great clarity Featuring useful historical context this brave book analyses the moral aspects of the policies and ensuing migration The book completely undermines existing assumptions concerning Sino African relations such as that Africa is of critical importance for China that China sees no risk in its largesse towards Africa and that there is a single Chinese profile agenda The resulting collection touches the issue of racism but is equally about moments of pure idealism and romance in Sino African history

In China's Backyard Jason Morris-Jung, 2017-12-13 In this fascinating multi disciplinary and multi sided volume the authors challenge reductionist and oversimplifying approaches to understanding China s engagement with Southeast Asia Productively viewing these interactions through a resource lens the editor has transcended disciplinary and area studies divides in order to assemble a dynamic and diverse group of scholars with extensive experience across Southeast Asia and in

China all while bringing together perspectives from resource economics policy analysis international relations human geography political ecology history sociology and anthropology The result is an important collection that not only offers empirically detailed studies of Chinese energy and resource investments in Southeast Asia but which attends to the complex and often ambivalent ways in which such investments have become both a source of anxiety and aspiration for different stakeholders in the region It is essential reading for scholars seeking to understand the diverse contours of Chinese investment in Southeast Asia Erik Harms Department of Anthropology Yale University The China Year Book ,1921
