tale life is disrupted by intrigue and threats of kidnapping Through many unexpected twists and turns she struggles to distinguish between what is real and what is illusion As relationships within her family unravel she is faced with her own personal crisis Will she succumb to external pressures and conform or will she escape and find the life of freedom she longs for This beautifully written story juxtaposes the dynamics of one woman s desire for personal freedom with the havoc it causes her family and her soul against the backdrop of Czechoslovakia s forty year journey to its Velvet Revolution and eventually the fall of the Iron Curtain It poignantly portrays the universal drive of all young people to discover and express their own unique identity apart from their parents control A wonderfully told story with the nostalgia of a historical novel and the foreboding of a mystery thriller Unlike anything I have ever read I loved it The agonies and the ecstasies spoke to my soul and changed me inside It grabbed me from the start and I just couldn t put it down Destiny's Key W.
