Drama Magazine, 1924 The Drama, 1927 Human Trafficking Marie Segrave, 2016-12-05 Human trafficking captured the attention of the global community well over a decade ago inspiring multifarious international national regional and local responses While formally recognized as one of the major threats associated with transnational organized crime human trafficking remains an issue about which much has been written and yet little is known or supported by empirical evidence The essays selected for this volume reflect four key areas of debate the transnational organized crime framework the data and research landscape the implementation of anti trafficking responses and the articulation of alternative responses to human trafficking These essays are written by well known and more recent contributors to this field of research The collection draws attention to contemporary arguments as well as recent empirical research and points to the importance of contextualizing human trafficking within both the global and local setting This volume reflects where human trafficking data research and debate is currently located and where it is heading and as such is of interest to academics students policymakers and practitioners Handbook of Girls' and Women's Psychological Health Judith Worell, Carol D. often referred to by the acronym UNTOC was approved by the UN General Assembly on 15 November 2000 and made available for governments to sign at a high level conference in Palermo the heartland of the Italian Mafia on 12-15 December 2000. For this reason UNTOC is sometimes also referred to as the Palermo Convention. The Convention entered into force on 29 September 2003. The purpose of UNTOC is to promote cooperation to prevent and combat transnational organized crime more effectively. UNTOC seeks to promote consistency among national legal systems and set standards for domestic laws so that States parties can effectively combat transnational organized crime. UNTOC is supplemented by three protocols: the Protocol against the Smuggling of Migrants by Land, Air and Sea; the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, especially Women and Children; and the Protocol against the Illicit Manufacturing of and Trafficking in Firearms, their Parts and Components and Ammunition. Article by article, this book presents the text of each provision of the Convention and the Protocols, followed by a systematic analysis of their background and negotiating history, their interpretation by the Conference of the Parties and its working groups, in judicial decisions by domestic and international courts, in the academic literature, and in official material published by international organisations, chief among them the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), the guardian of UNTOC and the Protocols. The authors offer critical scholarly commentary. The book serves as a compendium for those using, researching or studying provisions under UNTOC and the Protocols, and as a handbook for those charged with implementing and enforcing them.

Sexual and Gender-Based Violence in International Law Bharat H. Desai, Moumita Mandal, 2022-06-18. This book addresses sexual and gender based violence (SGBV) against women from an international law point of view. It identifies the reasons behind SGBV against women with a specific focus on cultural practices that try to justify it and highlights the legal challenges related to the topic for both national and international justice systems. The seven chapters of the book are: i) Introduction; ii) SGBV: a global concern; iii) International legal protection; iv) Role of international institutions; v) Role of cultural factors; and vi) Challenges; vii) Conclusions. In the light of concerted global efforts to bring to an end or at least severely contain SGBV against women, the book provides a future roadmap to the United Nations system, States, international institutions, multidisciplinary scholars, civil society organizations, and other global actors. The book contains a Foreword by Peter Maurer, President of International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC).
