The Watcher Stephen Schwartz, 2023-11-20 Long ago I lived alone in my mountain shanty beside my lake in Maine The lake provided fish The forest provided small game and berries I had my books I had solitude I avoided contact with the outside world in Bar Harbor except as I needed food clothing some few tools and more books all of which I borrowed from those in the town Eventually each of the books was returned I didn't dislike people I just did not need or want their company At eighteen I was a hermit and happy to be so My life was simple and uncomplicated by the needs of others or of the outside world I spent each day absorbed in the wonders of the wildlife and of nature around me and the world of my books It was enough for me I was in control as much as the forest and weather around me would allow It all changed in a single day I was caught borrowing food from the market I had a possible sack with me that contained two books that I borrowed from the library There was also a pair of boots that I borrowed from the general store The constable and his deputy took me to the dock and placed me on the whaling ship that waited there There was no
