Hundreds of years ago, four writers recorded fairy tales. A Frenchman, Charles Perrault, wrote many well-known tales. In Germany, Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm retold common folklore. Their collection was published in two volumes, in 1812 and 1815. H.C. Andersen, from Denmark, penned thousands of tales. Some examples are "The Little Mermaid" and "Thumbelina." Because of these men, we can enjoy reading fairy tales today.

Charles Perrault is called "the father of fairy tales" because he was the first to record folklore in written form. He published a set of stories, Tales of Mother Goose, in 1697. The book included eight short but well-liked fairy tales. You may recognize some of the titles: "Sleeping Beauty," "Little Red Riding Hood," "Puss in Boots," and "Cinderella." More than one hundred years later, other authors, such as the Brothers Grimm and Hans Christian Andersen, continued to write fairy tales. Their work was inspired by Charles Perrault.

Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm collected and published German folklore. During the early 1800s, they gathered hundreds of folktales that had been told orally. Then they wrote them into stories. Finally, the tales were published in Children's and Household Tales. This two-volume collection was first released in 1812 and 1815. It included fairy tales like "The Frog Prince," "Hansel and Gretel," "Sleeping Beauty," and "Snow White." Grimm's fairy tales continue as popular children's literature today.

Unlike the Brothers Grimm, Hans Christian Andersen used his own style to retell folklore. Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm held to tradition. They wrote their fairy tales the way they had been told for years. Andersen, however, added figurative language and dialogue. This new style helped stories like "The Emperor's New Clothes" and "The Ugly Duckling" come to life. Mr. Andersen also wrote some original fairy tales, such as "Little Ida's Flowers." H.C. Andersen is well known for his vivid and enchanting writing style.

These men wrote with different styles. They came from different countries. However, these four European gentlemen have one thing in common: they preserved fairy tales by writing them down. Because of them, we can read stories told orally many generations ago.
