English History In The Making Volume 1:

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 1, 600-1660 George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974-08-29 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 1 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Learning Directory, 1970

The Chautauquan, 1883 Nation and the Writing of History in China and Britain, 1880-1930 Asier Hernández Aguirresarobe, 2022-08-19 Nation and the Writing of History in China and Britain explores through a comparative approach the reception of the nationalist worldview and its effects on the practice of history in China and Britain This book proposes that nationalism rather than a political doctrine is a way of making sense of the world which results from the combination of a set of definite assumptions The work analyzes how each one of these premises was accepted and negotiated by literati intellectuals historians and other scholars in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The results of this research showcase how the reception of the new nationalist worldview crucially affected images of the past the present and the future in both societies and decisively framed cultural social and political debate In addition they likewise evidence the fundamental role that historical narratives play in the crystallization of national identities This book is perfect for readers interested in China and Britain during this time period but also to anyone attracted to new ways of conceiving nationalism and its role in our world The English Catalogue of Books, 1901 The Temple history readers Matthew Thompson Yates, 1902

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record, 1913 Horses, Power and Place Neil Ward, 2023-12-05 Horses Power and Place explores the evolution of humanity's relationship with horses from early domestication through to the use of the horse as a draught animal an agricultural industrial and military asset and an animal of sport and leisure Taking an historical approach and using Britain as a case study this is the first book length exploration of the horse in the more than human geography of a nation It traces the role and implications of horse based mobility for the evolution of settlement structure urban morphology and the rural landscape It maps the growth and various uses of horses to the point of peak horse in the early twentieth century before considering the contemporary place of the horse in twenty first century economy and society It assesses the role of the horse in the formation of places within Britain and in the formation of the nation The book reflects on the implications of this historical and contemporary equine geography for animal geographies and animal studies It argues for the study of animals in general in how places are made not just by humans Written in a clear and accessible style this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of animal geography and animal studies more widely
