and a plummeting birth rate in which the few remaining fertile women are conscripted to have sex and bear children to the most powerful men all justified and rationalized by religious fundamentalism Among the questions raised by this riveting and harrowing story The Handmaid's Tale displays the connection between sex and power What light does this story shed on sex and power in our own society The divinity of the feminine is associated with the female capacity to give birth Is this association inherently exploitative In the story the revolution rapidly rebranded people by changing their names and placing them into functional groups with specific titles How important is change in language to the suppression of individual freedom The Handmaid's Tale sees everything through the eyes of one character How is it possible to construct a self and an identity at odds with the definition which the culture attempts to impose In oppressive societies even the most oppressed do show some freedom of choice What is the limit of autonomy in a repressive society ruled by a fanatical ideology Our present ethics of sex relies heavily on the notion of consent but in the world of The Handmaid's Tale there is little scope for consent How is the power of consent constricted by the broader social conditions The feminist idea of Care Ethics can be used to critique various gender relationships How does Care Ethics evaluate our own society and the society depicted in The Handmaid's Tale The society portrayed in the story is marked by fierce religiosity yet the Christian God presumably disapproves of its brutal exploitation and oppression What is the relation between a loving Deity and the literal interpretation of scriptural passages Among many dystopian stories what makes The Handmaid's Tale particularly memorable and what purpose is served by the contemplation of imaginary dystopias Suicide is common in The Handmaid's Tale and contemplating the possibility of suicide is even more common Can life be worth living if the political and religious structure is thoroughly malign Beneath the theocratic preaching there is the practical suggestion that everything is being arranged for the good of society and therefore of everyone Who gets to decide and enforce what is in society's best interests

Ferris,2021-07-22 This book foregrounds some of the ways in which women playwrights from across a range of contexts and working in a variety of forms and styles are illuminating the contemporary world while also contributing to its reshaping as they reflect rethink and reimagine it through their work for the stage The book is framed by a substantial introduction that sets forth the critical vision and structure of the book as a whole and an afterword that points toward emerging currents in and expansions of the contemporary field of playwriting by women on the cusp of the third decade of the twenty first century Within this frame the twenty eight chapters that form the main body of the book each focusing on a single play of critical significance together constitute a multi faceted inevitably partial yet nonetheless integral picture of the work of women playwrights since 2000 as they engage with some of the most pressing issues of our time Some of these issues include the continuing oppression of and violence against women people of color LGBTQ people and ethnic minorities the ongoing processes of decolonization the consequences of neoliberal capitalism the devastation and enduring trauma of war global migration and the refugee crisis the turn to right wing populism and the impact of climate change including environmental disaster and species extinction The book is structured into seven sections Replaying the Canon Representing Histories Staging Lives Re imagining Family Navigating Communities Articulating Intersections and New World Order s These sections group clusters of plays according to the broad critical actions they perform or in the case of the final section the new world orders that they capture through their stagings of the seeming impasse of the politically and environmentally catastrophic global present moment There are many other points of resonance among and across the plays but this seven part structure foregrounds the broader actions that drive the plays both in the Aristotelian dramaturgical sense and in the larger sense of the critical interventions that the plays creatively enact In this way the seven part structure establishes correspondences across the great diversity of dramatic material represented in the book while at the same time identifying key methods of critical approach and areas of focus that align the book s contributors across this diversity The structure of the book thus parallels what the playwrights themselves are doing but also how the contributors are approaching their work Plays featured in the book are from Canada Australia South Africa the US the UK France Argentina New Zealand Syria Brazil Italy and Austria the playwrights include Margaret Atwood Leah Purcell Ya l Farber Paula Vogel Adrienne Kennedy Suzan Lori Parks debbie tucker green Lisa Loomer H l ne Cixous Anna Deavere Smith Lola Arias Lisa Kron and Jeanine Tesori Marie Clements Quiara Alegria Hudes Alia Bano Holly Hughes Whiti Hereaka Julia Cho Liwaa Yazji Grace Pass Dominique Morisseau Emma Dante Frances Ya Chu Cowhig Lynn Nottage Elfriede Jelinek Caryl Churchill Colleen Murphy and Lucy Kirkwood Encompassing several generations of playwrights and scholars ranging from the most senior to mid career to emerging voices the book will be essential reading for established researchers a valuable learning resource for students at all levels and a useful and accessible guide for theatre practitioners and interested theatre goers be of importance To start with I will take a look at the social and political background of the time the novels were written in followed by a generic analysis of the works Secondly I will answer the question about the inspiration for these novels and I will deal with the epilogues Atwood added to her books This will be followed by a chapter about the main topics of the novels which are reproduction religion and sexuality Last but not least I will compare the main characters and discuss the message of her works
