began to study God's Word in depth she found that her prayers also could heal Agnes began to teach and write on the subject of healing Her first book The Healing Light shares her simple techniques for creating the right environment within ourselves to welcome God's healing A recurring metaphor that she uses is that of electricity If you flip on a light switch and the light doesn't come on you would logically conclude that there is a problem with the lamp not that electricity doesn't exist Similarly when our prayers aren't answered and healing doesn't come it's not because there is no God but because we are not properly connected to His love and energy She writes just as a whole world full of electricity will not light a house unless the house itself is prepared to receive that electricity so the infinite and eternal life of God cannot help us unless we are prepared to receive that life within ourselves Written in a friendly conversational tone Mrs Sanford shares dozens of anecdotes of successful healing methods While some of these modern miracles were accomplished through her own prayers many others were the result of her sharing her techniques with others and allowing them to heal themselves While Mrs Sanford was raised Presbyterian her healing does not only live within the rigid confines of religious ideology Her stories of healing include Jews Roman Catholics and children too young to understand any particular theology As Glenn Clark explains in the introduction her healing powers came through simple exposure to the climate of faith and love A decade after its release The Healing Light became a foundational work of the Charismatic Movement This theological movement within Christianity holds that baptism with the Holy Spirit can lead to a new awareness of reality as well as gifts from God including gifts of healing miraculous powers prophecy and speaking in tongues This is in contrast to the more mainstream cessationist theology which states that God's miracles only briefly existed in New Testament times and ceased during the early centuries A D Mrs Sanford was a prolific writer and speaker She wrote over fifteen books and traveled extensively to minister in New Zealand Australia Scotland Holland and England In her later years she devoted her prayer energy to steadying the fault lines of Southern California hoping to prevent or lessen the impact of earthquakes in the region Interestingly there were only three major earthquakes in the area in the 17 years that she lived and prayed there The gates of life, meditations on the doctrines of repentance, forgiveness, justification & sanctification Howell Elvet LEWIS,1902 The Andover Review ,1884

Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1913 Recovering from Chronic Fatigue Syndrome William Collinge,1993 The first book to offer an optimistic message for CFS sufferers this essential and inspirational guidebook is designed to help patients empower themselves using techniques for body awareness inner dialogue deep relaxation guided imagery and other devices so that they may take responsibility for their own healing and gain a more positive outlook on life The voice of praise: for Sunday school and home National Sunday School Union (Great Britain),1887 Great Hymns of the Church John Henry Hopkins,1887
