

English Class

The walls are white to the side of me and behind me and painted copper at the front behind the teacher's back.

Bulletin boards display pictures, of famous writers- poets, authors, critics; and there, staring through the windows sits Shakespeare, beside him a timeline of his life.

Etchmarks such as a ruler, each inch a new year and above each inch, his growth.

And I wonder to myself, is there a ruler measuring my seconds and minutes, each separate breath as a millimeter, to be hung in an English classroom beside Shakespeare one day?

My talent tells me not to dream of a mid-spring morning where my picture and lifeline are faded and forgotten by the students while I watch from my frame as they read his poems and drama, mine lies within the trash barrel by the door.

Did not my mind then tell me to never dream, for only love may beat eternally as his heart still beats, and mine has been extracted from my chest and been placed beneath the words of this poem.
