

FORM OVER FENCES

A Pictorial Critique of Jumping
for the Junior Rider

Jane M. Dillon

THIS important book is a great step forward in teaching good jumping form. The scores of specially taken photographs are arranged in groups showing good, better, and best form in jumping. The reader should cover up the text when judging each group, and then read the authoritative critique which clearly explains why one jump is better than another. The groups are arranged so that as one proceeds through the book, the judging becomes progressively difficult.
