Everyday Exchanges:

Everyday Exchanges Evan Watkins, 1998 Arguing against the perception that the capitalist marketplace permits no alternatives the author shows that a kind of economic common sense conditions how people organize their everyday lives and understand their powers as social agents within markets that are far from monolithic and uniform One Night Cathy Winkler, 2002-05-07 One night anthropologist Cathy Winkler awoke from a deep sleep to discover a rapist standing by her bed For the rest of that night she lived a woman's worst nightmare as she was repeatedly raped and beaten by the stranger The event changed her life into something resembling a Kafka novel a justice system that bungled the case then blamed the victim a social service system that provided no services or comfort uneasy and awkward friends exploitative media and insensitive university administrators and colleagues The pain of those four hours was dwarfed by the frustration of her decade long fight to find the rapist and bring him to justice ultimately through one of the first successful uses of DNA evidence in a rape case Winkler a brilliant observer and ethnographer chronicles this struggle here including her own growing awareness of her power to stare down district attorneys to use the media to her own ends including segments on 48 Hours and Court TV and ultimately through her persistence to put the rapist behind bars for life As a story of triumph over adversity One Night is an inspirational work And it provides a model of how researchers can turn the lens inward and incisively examine ourselves and our own world

Dobu Susanne Kuehling, 2021-09-30 This is an ethnography of Dobu a Massim society of Papua New Guinea which has been renowned in social anthropology since Reo Fortune's Sorcerers of Dobu 1932 Focusing on exchange and its underlying ethics this book explores the concept of the person in the Dobu world view The book examines major aspects of exchange such as labor mutual support apologetic gifts revenge and punishment kula exchange and mortuary gifts It discusses in detail the characteristics of small gifts such as betel nuts big gifts kula valuables pigs and large yams and money as they appear in exchange contexts The ethnography begins with an analysis of the construct of the Dobu person and sets out to examine everyday practices and values The belief system incorporating witches sorcerers and a Christian God is shown to have a powerful influence on individual conduct due to its panoptic character The institutions that link Dobu with the outside world are examined in terms of the ideology concerning money the Church receives offerings for God the difficulties faced by trade store owners evince conflicting notions concerning monetary wealth The last two chapters delve into lived experience in two major domains of Dobu exchange kula and the sagali feast

'For those who've come across the seas...' Andrew Jakubowicz, Christina Ho, 2014-02-15 Organizing Silence Robin Patric Clair, 1998-10-01 Winner of the 2000 Outstanding Book Award presented by the Organizational Communication Division of the National Communication Association Organizing Silence is a thought provoking look at how silence is embedded in our language society and institutions It provides an overview of the varied philosophical approaches to understanding the role of silence and communication One particular view of silence communication as grounded in political and patriarchal frameworks is given special attention The author questions not only how dominant groups silence marginalized members of society but also how marginalized groups privilege and abandon each other Sexual harassment is given as an example of material and discursive practices that articulate both a micro and macro level of silence and accounts of both women and men who have been sexually harassed are provided The book provides an alternative aesthetic perspective as a way of understanding the realities we create encouraging alternative ways to listen to the silence and presenting novel possibilities for future research

Mediating Multiculturalism Daniella Trimboli,2020-08-04 Using digital storytelling a new media genre that began in California in the late 1990s and that proliferated across the West in the 2000s as a site of analysis this book asks What is done in the name of the everyday Like everyday multiculturalism digital storytelling is promoted as an accessible enabling and ordinary phenomenon that represents cultural experience more accurately than official sites As such the genre frequently houses stories of migration community and ethnic and racial differences In turn digital story collections often act as digital monuments or repositories of multiculturalism giving a digital life to narratives of migration cultural difference and national belonging This is evidenced in one of the world s largest public collections of digital stories found in the Australian Centre for the Moving Image ACMI and referenced throughout this book Using examples from this collection and pointing to comparable ones in the UK and North America this book investigates how notions of the everyday become a channel through which certain long standing discourses of race get redeployed in multicultural nations What can digital storytelling teach us about the status and future of multiculturalism in these societies Can digital storytelling re mediate multiculturalism in new progressive ways
