Scott Rodin,2000-01-10 R Scott Rodin unpacks a theology of the abundant life which encompasses our world life and possessions and appropriately begins with the very being of the Creator Official Proceedings Railway Club of Pittsburgh,1927 Science and Providence John C. Polkinghorne,2009-07-27 Internationally renowned priest scientist Dr John C Polkinghorne examines whether a personal interacting God is a credible concept in today s scientific age Encouraging the belief that there is a compatibility between the insights of science and the insights of religion this book previously published in the United Kingdom focuses on the viewpoint that the world is one in which both human beings and God have the freedom to act A modern understanding of the physical world is applied to questions of prayer and providence such as Do miracles happen Can prayer change anything Why does evil exist Why does God allow suffering Why does God need us to ask him God s involvement in time is considered from both a temporal and an eternal perspective The roles of incarnation and sacrament are discussed in terms of whether or not they have a credible place in today s worldview And the Final Anthropic Principle FAP is presented with its attempt at a physical eschatology showing it to be an inadequate basis for hope Real hope can reside only with God Polkinghorne concludes
