Ewe Unification Movement

George Thullen

Ewe Unification Movement:

The Ewe Unification Movement D. E. K. Amenumey, 1989 This publication is the result of research undertaken for the Ph D degree at the University of Manchester England It is a study of the vicissitudes of the demand for the unification of a homogeneous ethnic group that came to be divided into three political units

Securitising Decolonisation Julius Heise, 2024-05-23 With the right to petition the United Nations the Ewe and Togoland unification movement enjoyed a privilege unmatched by other dependent peoples Using language conveying insecurity the movement seized the international spotlight ensuring that the topic of unification dominated the UN Trusteeship System for over a decade Yet its vociferous securitisations fell silent due to colonial distortion leaving unification unfulfilled thus allowing the seeds of secessionist conflict to grow At the intersection of postcolonial theory and security studies Julius Heise presents a theory driven history of Togoland s path to independence offering a crucial lesson for international statebuilding efforts

The Fruits of Freedom in British Togoland Katharine Alexandra Collier Skinner, 2015-06-17 The Fruits of Freedom in British Togoland examines the history and politics behind the failed project of Togoland reunification in which the United Nations trust territory of British Togoland was to be separated from the Gold Coast to join with French Togoland in a new independent African state

The Fruits of Freedom in British Togoland Kate Skinner, 2015-06-17 The end of World War I saw the former German protectorate of Togoland split into British and French administered territories By the 1950s a political movement led by the Ewe ethnic group called for the unification of British and French Togoland into an independent multiethnic state Despite the efforts of the Ewe the United Nations trust territory of British Togoland was ultimately merged with the Gold Coast to become Ghana the first independent nation in sub Saharan Africa French Togoland later declared independence as the nation of Togo Based on interviews with former political activists and their families access to private papers and a collection of oral and written propaganda this book examines the history and politics behind the failed project of Togoland unification Kate Skinner challenges the marginalization of the Togoland question from popular and academic analyses of postcolonial politics and explores present day ramifications of the contingencies of decolonization

Problems of the Trusteeship System George Thullen, 1964

The United States and Decolonization in West Africa, 1950-1960 Ebere Nwaubani, 2001 He also gives a nuanced appraisal of the Cold War demonstrating that it was not as important as popularly believed in determining U S behavior in Africa The primary focus of the book is on West Africa with case studies focusing on the Ewe Ghana including the Volta dam project and Guinea The broad issues discussed are framed in the larger context of sub Saharan Africa and against the backdrop of the larger debates about the nature of post 1945 United States diplomacy

BOOK JACKET Contemporary Nationalism David Brown, 2003-09-02 This book examines the problematic politics of contemporary nationalism and the worldwide resurgence of ethno nationalist conflict It analyses the core theories of nationalism building upon these theories and offering a clear analytical framework through which to approach the subject This outstanding volume features detailed case studies discussing nationalist contention in areas including Spain Singapore Ghana and Australia as well as looking at Northern Ireland Kosovo and Rwanda disputes

Boundaries, Communities and State-Making in West Africa Paul Nugent,2019-06-06 By examining three centuries of history this book shows how vital border regions have been in shaping states and social contracts

Special Report on the Ewe and Togoland Unification Problem United Nations Visiting Mission to Trust Territories in West Africa,1954

Ethnicity in Ghana NA NA,2016-04-30 Although African ethnicity has become a highly fertile field of enquiry in recent years most of the research is concentrated on southern and central Africa and has passed Ghana by This volume extends many of the distilled insights but also modifies them in the light of the Ghanaian evidence The collection is multidisciplinary in scope and spans the pre colonial colonial and post colonial contexts A central contention of the volume is that while there were significant regional variations ethnicity was not purely a colonial invention The boundaries of we groups have constantly mutated from pre colonial times while European categorization owed much to indigenous ways of seeing The contributors explore the role of European administrators and recruitment officers as well as African cultural brokers in shaping new identities The interaction of gender and ethnic consciousness is explicitly addressed The volume also examines the formulation of the national question in Ghana today in debates over language policy and conflicts over land and chieftaincy
