Flaming Feud:

Flaming Feud Tom West, 1967      Flaming Feud Fred East, 1951      Shoemaker Joe Foster, 2020-10-01 The remarkable story of how Joe Foster developed Reebok into one of the world's most famous sports brands having started from a small factory in Bolton. Since the late 19th century the Foster family had been hand making running shoes supplying the likes of Eric Liddell and Harold Abrahams later immortalised in the film Chariots of Fire as well as providing boots to most Football League clubs. But a family feud between Foster's father and uncle about the direction of their business led to Joe and his brother Jeff setting up a new company inspired by the success of Adidas and Puma and so Reebok was born. At first money was so short that Joe and his wife had to live in their rundown factory while the machinery that made the shoes was placed around the edge of the floor because it was so weak it could have collapsed if they'd been positioned in the middle. But from this inauspicious start a major new player in the sports equipment field began to emerge inspired by Joe's marketing vision. By the 1980s Reebok had become a global phenomenon when they were the first to latch onto the potential of the aerobics craze inspired by Jane Fonda. Soon Reeboks were being seen on Hollywood red carpets and even in the film Aliens where Sigourney Weaver wore a pair of Reebok Alien Stompers. Like the international bestseller Shoe Dog by Nike's Phil Knight Shoemaker is a powerful tale of triumph against all the odds revealing the challenges and sacrifices that go into creating a world beating brand. It is also the story of how a small local business can transform itself with the right products and the right vision into something much much bigger.

Hunter-trader-trapper, 1924      The Architect, 1879      Fire for the Night Babette Deutsch, 1930      The Judge, 1924      Adult Catalog: Title Los Angeles County Public Library, 1970      View of Fashion Alison Adburgham, 2023-02-03 First published in 1966 View of Fashion is a collection of articles on fashions, shows, parties and people in London, Paris, Italy and New York including a section looking back to the surprising sportswomen of Victorian and Edwardian times. Lady M P's are observed from the Press Gallery of the House of Commons, the Headmistress and the Board of Governors are studied from the School Hall, on Speech Day, tennis champions in the Players Tearoom at Wimbledon. Fuller figures descend upon Woburn Abbey by helicopter, model girls weather a stormy crossing on the Queen Elizabeth, fancy goods are reviewed at Brighton, costume exhibitions at the Victoria and Albert Museum, corsetry in the River Room at the Savoy. There are profiles of well known personalities on the fashion scene and a section on men's fashions and male models. Alison Adburgham's view of fashion is both accurate and acute, often unexpected, never distorted. It picks out the essential, mocks the meaningless and notes significance in the nuance. It is a view with which Haro is in sensitive accord and which he here brilliantly illustrates with ten full pages and many incidental drawings. This book will be of interest to students of fashion journalism and social history.
