The Green Kingdom Cornelia Funke, Tammi Hartung, 2025-03-06 Caspia's summer is transformed when she discovers a bundle of letters containing ten botanical riddles in this enchanting adventure. Twelve-year-old Caspia hates big cities, especially one as busy as New York. So she isn't thrilled by the news that her parents are taking her to stay in Brooklyn. It's summer, devouring bad luck. Cornelia Funke weaves magic into every sentence of this new and exciting mystery set in the heart of New York City. The Green Kingdom is perfect for fans of the Greenwild series.

The Things that Make for Peace Jesse P. Nickel, 2021-02-08 This study offers fresh insight into the place of non-violence within Jesus' ministry by examining it in the context of the eschatologically motivated revolutionary violence of Second Temple Judaism. The book first explores the connection between violence and eschatology in key literary and historical sources from Second Temple Judaism. The heart of the study then focuses on demonstrating the thematic centrality of Jesus' opposition to such eschatological violence within the Synoptic presentations of his ministry, arguing that a proper understanding of eschatology and violence together enables appreciation of the full significance of Jesus' consistent disassociation of revolutionary violence from his words and deeds. The book thus articulates an understanding of Jesus' nonviolence that is firmly rooted in the historical context of Second Temple Judaism, presenting a challenge to the seditious Jesus hypothesis, the claim that the historical Jesus was sympathetic to revolutionary ideals. Jesus' rejection of violence ought to be understood as an integral component of his eschatological vision, embodying and enacting his understanding of how God's kingdom would come and what would identify those who belonged to it. In Nomine Nathan Neuharth, Times of Spiritual Dryness Joseph Musyimi Makato, 2014-02 Intellectual turmoil and spiritual yearning for many years. What about dissenting for Holy Spirit? The divine power of God has given us freedom to choose Christ or the devil, but God's will remains absolute and always comes first. In God's divine providence, our prayers are answered while his will remains intact, but because of his constant love, he can release the grace to guide us in all matters. After researching and examining the reality of parents bringing up leadership, I wish to share cogent information that there is a critical mass of parents trapped in ignorance, lacking vision and loving leadership. Hence, the youth are reliant on parents who may be destroying and breaking their hearts. And yet, the parents' hearts are bleeding as the drugs, cheap beer, consumption, and carefree mass commercialized sex practices take the toll on youths' lives. There is a dire desperation, and the parents are turning to the drugs, commercial sex, and booking for money at whatever cost, even involving evil rituals, building partnerships with the fallen angels, and buying for
