Glorious Accident:

Christian Identity Borght, 2008-07-31 In this age of globalization a need for a communicative explanation of personal and group positions also motivates Christians to describe more precisely their identity in relation to other actors in society What makes a Christian a Christian What is specifically Christian in social actions or political calling Is there a difference between Christian justice and justice in general and the way Christians deal with justice What is our calling as Christians The contributions in this volume are the result of the 6th biannual IRTI conference in Seoul 2005 on this theme Christian Identity International Reformed Theological Institute. International Conference, 2008 The volume offers contributions reflecting the understanding of Christian identity in the midst of changing cultural socio economic political and religious context in a globalized world

Darwin's Enigma Luther Sunderland, 1998-08 Evolutionists have long known that Charles Darwin's original argument against his own theory that a lack of fossil evidence of transitional forms would reduce him to an embarrassing footnote in history was screamingly true No legitimate fossil evidence exists that shows one species changing into another This startling realization led Luther Sunderland to an exhaustive search of the subject and his findings show clearly that evolution is a theory in disarray From his own interviews with leading evolutionists and an examination of the fossil evidence Sunderland shows that the Enigma of Darwin s anti God philosophy is that the facts show it is anything but rock solid

The Politics of Well-Being Anthony M. Clohesy,2020-11-11 The Politics of Well Being argues that the relationship between well being and ethical life has been overlooked The more specific argument of the book is that ethical life requires political engagement and the emergence of a society committed to critical thinking It is argued that these conditions allow for our ordination and confirmation as ethical subjects While well being can be experienced in different ways it is claimed that after experience of ethical life a more sustainable form of it is revealed to us a form which we would be drawn to preserve a form which can be constituted as an object of hope While the book draws on philosophical themes its main focus is political This is because its primary objective is to identify and to examine what needs to be done in order to realise ethical life Its main focus in this respect is the identification and examination of the barriers which need to be overcome if ethical life is to be realised It is acknowledged that this will not be an easy task Indeed it may be an impossible task However despite these barriers and despite the dark days we are living through the book is a call to hope rather than a surrender to despair This book will be of interest to students of politics psychology cultural studies philosophy and sociology as well as anyone else interested in exploring new ideas about how to make the world a better place
