God A Critical Enquiry:

God Antony Flew, 1984 The Rationality of Theism Paul Copan, Paul Moser, 2004-07-31 The Rationality of Theism is a controversial collection of brand new papers by thirteen outstanding philosophers and scholars Its aim is to offer comprehensive theistic replies to the traditional arguments against the existence of God offering a positive case for theism as well as rebuttals of recent influential criticisms of theism The doctrine of sacred scripture, a critical, historical and dogmatic inquiry into the origin and nature of the old and new Testaments George Trumbull Ladd, 1883 God's Last Words David S. Katz, 2004-02-09 This wide ranging book is an intellectual history of how informed readers read their Bibles over the past four hundred years from the first translations in the sixteenth century to the emergence of fundamentalism in the twentieth century In an astonishing display of erudition David Katz recreates the response of readers from different eras by examining the horizon of expectations that provided the lens through which they read In the Renaissance says Katz learned men rushed to apply the tools of textual analysis to the Testaments fully confident that God's Word would open up and reveal shades of further truth During the English Civil War there was a symbiotic relationship between politics and religion as the practical application of the biblical message was hammered out Science Newtonian and Darwinian as well as the emerging disciplines of anthropology archaeology and geology also had a great impact on how the Bible was received The rise of the novel and the development of a concept of authorial copyright were other factors that altered readers experience Katz discusses all of these and more concluding with the growth of fundamentalism in America which brought Eclipse in Mission Rob Goodwin, 2012-07-06 A silent crisis has been taking place for some time now an ongoing eclipse in mission whereby our understanding of what it is has been obscured by the idols of our Christian passions and biblical perspectives Wherever that crisis has been perceived energetic responses have been proposed and much has been done in the name of and for the sake of mission However those responses themselves have often overshadowed the problem of the identity of Christian mission And so we remain in the darkness of understanding mission as we always have done We even impose these understandings onto God calling Him a missionary God and we project our idols of mission onto the sacred Word Here then is an uncomfortable but necessary critique of modern mission and the ground from which it has grown Here too is the proposition of a better basis for understanding what mission is and for outworking it aright in all of our lives By articulating a new paradigm for Christian mission the eclipsed problem of mission in crisis will have been resolved and the missional potential of a global church dynamic with the very Spirit and presence of the living God will be released Bonhoeffer and Contemporary Challenges Michael Mawson, Dianne Rayson, 2026-02-19 This edited collection of essays draws on Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology and ethics to engage with contemporary crises God's Communicating Door Harold Adye Prichard, 1929 Religion and Community Keith Ward, 2000 Religion is an important social force both for good and evil in the modern world In the final volume of his comparative theology Keith Ward considers the main ways in which religion and society interact and the ways in which the major world religions need to adapt themselves in the modern world These religions are examined as forms of social life ranging from communities which seek to renounce the world to those which seek to embody the laws of God in society those which see religions in critical dialogue with social structures and those which see religion as a primarily individual matter The ideas of eretz Yisrael the umma of Islam the Buddhist sangha the Christian church and the Hindu sampradaya are critically analysed Ward also considers the doctrine of the church in Aquinas Calvin Schleiermacher and Tillich and develops a view of the church in a global perspective by means of both a historical and thematic approach He proposes a radical vision of the church as a person affirming world transforming society in the emerging global community of many faiths and cultures The relation of religious belief and morality and the ambiguous role of religion in society is investigated and the need for a new religious paradigm is defended expressing a global perspective without insistence on uniformity
