God in Us Anthony Freeman, 2015-10-28 God In Us is a radical representation of the Christian faith for the 21st century Following the example of the Old Testament prophets and the first century Christians it overturns received ideas about God God is not an invisible person out there somewhere but lives in the human heart and mind as the sum of all our values and ideals guiding and inspiring our lives This new updated edition includes a foreword by Bishop John Shelby Spong and an afterword from the author

God's Wider Presence Robert K. Johnston, 2014-10-14 What are we to make of those occasional yet illuminating experiences of God s presence that occur outside both church and Scripture We may encounter God s revelatory presence as we experience a beautiful sunset the birth of a child or a work of art music or literature While theologians have tended to describe such experiences abstractly as mere traces or echoes those involved often recognize such moments of transcendence as transformative Here senior theologian Robert Johnston explores how Christians should think theologically about God s wider revelatory presence that is mediated outside the church through creation conscience and culture The book offers a robust constructive biblical theology of general revelation rooting its insights in the broader Trinitarian work of the Spirit Drawing in part from the author s theological engagement with film and the arts the book helps Christians understand personal moments of experiencing God's transcendence and accounts for revelatory experiences of those outside the believing community It also shows how God's revelatory presence can impact our interaction with nonbelievers and those of other faiths

The Spirit at the Cross Carolyn E. L. Tan, 2019 What was the Holy Spirit doing at the cross of Jesus Christ Jesus death and resurrection are central to God's reconciliation with humanity Does the Holy Spirit's work pause between Gethsemane and the resurrection What does the phrase through the eternal Spirit in Hebrews 9:14 mean In this book Tan examines the perspectives of John Vernon Taylor Jurgen Moltmann and John D Zizioulas from whom three views of the Spirit's role at the cross are discerned the Spirit as the bond of love between the Father and the Son the Spirit as the Son's coworker enabler and power and the Spirit as the unifier who unites humanity to the Son In addition Karl Barth provides the intriguing concept of the Spirit as divine Judge along with the Father and the Son and specifically the one who carries out God's judgment in Jesus Christ the Elect Integrating these theological perspectives with an in depth examination of the manuscript and exegetical and hermeneutical history of Hebrews 9:14 Tan offers another way of understanding the role of the Spirit at the cross Christ as the Father's pneumatic crucible in whom sinful humanity is judged destroyed and reborn through the power of the Holy Spirit
