Global Trends 2005 Michael J. Mazarr, 2001 The director of the New Millennium Project at the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington shares his insights into both the societal and daily living changes we can expect to see as we move into a fresh century Reprint 10 000 first printing Data Mining for Global Trends in Mountain Biodiversity Eva M. Spehn, Christian Korner, 2009-09-28 Thanks to advances in electronic archiving of biodiversity data and the digitization of climate and other geophysical data a new era in biogeography functional ecology and evolutionary ecology has begun In Data Mining for Global Trends in Mountain Biodiversity Christian Korner Eva M Spehn and a team of experts from the Global Mountain Biodiversity The United Nations World Water Development Report - N° 3 - 2009 - Global Trends in Water-Related Disaster (an insight for policymakers) UNESCO, Global Trends 2005 Michael J. Mazarr, 1998 The United Nations World Water Development Report 3 World Water Assessment Programme, 2012-05-23 The United Nations World Water Development Report published every three years is a comprehensive review providing an authoritative picture of the state of the world's freshwater resources It offers best practices as well as in depth theoretical analyses to help stimulate ideas and actions for better stewardship in the water sector It is the only report of its kind resulting from the collaboration and contributions of the 26 UN agencies commissions program funds secretariats and conventions that have a significant role in addressing global water concerns The news media are full of talk of crises in climate change energy and food and troubled financial markets These crises are linked to each other and to water resources management Unresolved they may lead to increasing political insecurity and conflict Water is required to meet our fundamental needs and rising living standards and to sustain our planet's fragile ecosystems Pressures on the resource come from a growing and mobile population social and cultural change economic development and technological change Adding complexity and risk is climate change with impacts on the resource as well as on the sources of pressure on water The challenges though substantial are not insurmountable The Report shows how some countries have responded Progress in providing drinking water is heartening with the Millennium Development Goal target on track in most regions But other areas remain unaddressed and after decades of inaction the problems in water systems are enormous and will worsen if left unattended Leaders in the water sector can inform decisions outside their domain and manage water resources to achieve agreed socioeconomic objectives and environmental integrity Leaders in government the private sector and civil society determine these objectives and allocate human and financial resources to meet them Recognizing this responsibility they must act now Two volume set 336 Asian Communication Handbook 2008 Indrajit Banerjee, Stephen Logan, 2008 GEO Year Book 2006, Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, Yudhishtir Raj Isar, 2007-04-13 In the age of globalization we are no longer home alone Migration brings other worlds into our own just as the global reach of the media transmits our world into the hearts and minds of others Often incommensurate values are crammed together in the same public square Increasingly we all today live in the kind of edge cultures we used to see only on the frontiers of civilizations in places like Hong Kong or Istanbul The resulting frictions and fusions are shaping the soul of the coming world order I can think of no other project with the ambitious scope of defining this emergent reality than The Cultures and Globalization project I can think of no more capable minds than Raj Isar and Helmut Anheier who can pull it off Nathan Gardels Editor in Chief NPQ Global Services Los Angeles Times Syndicate Tribune Media This series represents an innovative approach to the central issues of globalization that phenomenon of such undefined contours Lupwishi Mbuyumba Director of the Observatory of Cultural Policies in Africa The world's cultures and their forms of creation presentation and preservation are deeply affected by globalization in ways that are inadequately documented and understood The Cultures and Globalization Series is designed to fill this void in our knowledge Analyzing the relationship between globalization and cultures is the aim of the Series In each volume leading experts as well as young scholars will track cultural trends connected to globalization throughout the world covering issues ranging from the role of cultural difference in politics and governance to the evolution of the cultural economy and the changing patterns of creativity and artistic expression Each volume will also include an innovative presentation of newly developed indicator suites on cultures and globalization that will be presented in a user friendly form with a high graphics content to facilitate accessibility and understanding Like so many phenomena linked to globalization conflicts over and within the cultural realms crystallize great anxieties and illusions through misplaced assumptions inadequate concepts unwarranted simplifications and instrumental readings The aim here is to marshal evidence from different disciplines and perspectives about the culture conflict and globalization relationships in conceptually sensitive ways
