Execution By Hunger:

Execution by Hunger Miron Dolot, 2011-02-14 Seven million people in the breadbasket of Europe were deliberately starved to death at Stalin's command. This story has been suppressed for half a century. Now a survivor speaks. In 1929 in an effort to destroy the well-to-do peasant farmers, Joseph Stalin ordered the collectivization of all Ukrainian farms. In the ensuing years, a brutal Soviet campaign of confiscations, terrorizing, and murder spread throughout Ukrainian villages. What food remained after the seizures was insufficient to support the population. In the resulting famine, as many as seven million Ukrainians starved to death. This poignant eyewitness account of the Ukrainian famine by one of the survivors relates the young Miron Dolot's day-to-day confrontation with despair and death, his helplessness as friends and family were arrested and abused, and his gradual realization as he matured of the absolute control the Soviets had over his life and the lives of his people. But it is also the story of personal dignity in the face of horror and humiliation. And it is an indictment of a chapter in the Soviet past that is still not acknowledged by Russian leaders.

Pitirim A. Sorokin Barry V. Johnston, 1995 Pitirim A. Sorokin (1889-1968) was one of the most original, important, and controversial figures in American sociology. His spectacular rise from a peasant childhood in Czarist Russia to the Olympian heights of Harvard University provides an unlikely and fascinating lens for examining the history of an entire discipline. And as Barry Johnston shows, his equally dramatic fall from favor and unexpected resurrection illuminate both Sorokin's life and the tempestuous world of academic politics. An outspoken revolutionary and secretary to Alexander Kerensky, Sorokin was imprisoned and ordered executed by Lenin, then reprieved and exiled. During the 1920s, he flourished as a teacher and scholar at the University of Minnesota, where he published several pioneering books on the Russian Revolution, social mobility, sociological theory, and rural sociology. Harvard president A. Lawrence Lowell was so impressed that he recruited Sorokin to chair the university's first department of sociology. From 1930 to 1944, the department prospered under Sorokin's leadership, attracting an entire generation of young scholars who, in their own right, would have a profound impact on the discipline. In this period, Sorokin published several volumes of his magnum opus, Social and Cultural Dynamics, and became embroiled in a bitter battle with rival Talcott Parsons for control of the department. Parsons ultimately deposed Sorokin and transformed sociology into the Department of Social Relations. Sorokin nevertheless stayed on at Harvard, where he established the Center for Creative Altruism, but otherwise continued to work in relative obscurity. Finally, in 1963, after years in eclipse, Sorokin was recognized for his accomplishments when he was elected president of the American Sociological Association. During a long and distinguished career, Sorokin amassed an amazingly diverse and substantial body of work, much of which set the standard for the field. At the same time, he broke with the conventions of sociology, frequently ridiculing and taunting his less adventurous colleagues. For his heresy, the flamboyant Sorokin was condemned and driven to the periphery of a profession anxious for legitimacy as a science. As a result, Sorokin's ideas have been consistently ignored and misunderstood for more than a quarter century. Based on exhaustive research in Sorokin's papers and the Harvard archives as well as interviews with Sorokin's surviving family members, former students and colleagues, this biography restores Sorokin to his rightful place in the pantheon of American intellectuals.

Political Losers Michael B. Davie, 2001 History is invariably written from the perspective of the winners. But losers also have stories to tell. And there are valuable lessons to be learned from the defeated. Join author Michael B. Davie as he examines the meaning and significance of such diverse events as the 1700s Acadian expulsion in Canada, Vietnam War and the defeat of Walter Mondale to Ronald Reagan in the United States and the forced famines of the Ukrainian Holocaust. It's a fascinating look at those who faced life's trials and came in second. The Journal of Historical Review, 1986

After the War Was Over Mark M. Mazower, 2016-09-29 This volume makes available some of the most exciting research currently underway into Greek society after Liberation. Together its essays map a new social history of Greece in the 1940s and 1950s, a period in which the country grappled bloodily with foreign occupation and intense civil conflict. Extending innovative historical approaches to Greece, the contributors explore how war and civil war affected the family, the law, and the state. They examine how people led their lives as communities and individuals at a time of political polarization in a country on the front line of the Cold War's division of Europe. And they advance the ongoing reassessment of what happened in postwar Europe by including regional and village histories and by examining long-running issues of nationalism and ethnicity. Previously neglected subjects from children and women in the resistance and in prisons to the state use of pageantry yield fresh insights. By focusing on episodes such as the problems of Jewish survivors in Salonika, memories of the Bulgarian occupation of northern Greece, and the controversial arrest of a war criminal, these scholars begin to answer persistent questions about war.

and its repercussions How do people respond to repression How deep are ethnic divisions Which forms of power emerge under a weakened state When forced to choose will parents sacrifice family or ideology How do ordinary people surmount wartime grievances to live together In addition to the editor the contributors are Eleni Haidia Procopis Papastratis Polymeris Voglis Mando Dalianis Tassoula Vervenioti Riki van Boeschoten John Sakkas Lee Sarafis Stathis N Kalyvas Anastasia Karakasidou Bea Lefkowitz Xanthippi Kotzageorgi Zymari Tassos Hadjianastassiou and Susanne Sophia Spiliotis Case Studies ,1987 The South Western Reporter ,1900 Includes the decisions of the Supreme Courts of Missouri Arkansas Tennessee and Texas and Court of Appeals of Kentucky Aug Dec 1886 May Aug 1892 Court of Appeals of Texas Aug 1892 Feb 1893 Jan Feb 1928 Courts of Civil and Criminal Appeals of Texas Apr June 1896 Aug Nov 1907 Court of Appeals of Indian Territory May June 1927 Jan Feb 1928 Courts of Appeals of Missouri and Commission of Appeals of Texas Self-Portrait of a Holocaust Survivor Werner Weinberg,2017-12-31 The breadth of Werner Weinberg s scholarship was prodigious yielding monographs on ancient Hebrew epigraphy and biblical exegesis the syntax of Rabbinic Hebrew medieval grammars and numerous studies on various aspects of Modern Hebrew Both Weinberg and Lisl his wife survived internment at the Bergen Belsen concentration camp This collection of essays reprinted here a little more than three decades after it first appeared conveys Weinberg s ongoing struggle to put into words something that might offer understanding to post Holocaust generations But they are also about a survivor s own desire for meaning and sense in a senseless world Most essays are framed around a series of questions which constitute Weinberg s prison and each time he attempts to pass through its portal he finds himself held back at the threshold Self Portrait of a Holocaust Survivor fuses together Weinberg s most personal reflections alongside careful analysis by an erudite theologian fully versed in traditional Jewish sources and historiography He moves between resisting and acquiescing to the implications of Bergen Belsen never shying away from the most painful questions about God morality virtue and the individual s potential to do good While today there is a vast literature penned by holocaust survivors and historians this collection grapples with the concept of survivorship from a unique perspective Terrorism in the Twenty-First Century Cindy C.
