Exit Into History:

Exit into History Eva Hoffman, 2014-10-16 A book that takes you on an intimate journey through Eastern Europe at a time when the dust was still settling from the collapse of the Berlin Wall Eva Hoffman travels from the Baltic to the Black Sea building a compelling portrait of a region uncertain about its future Independent Shortly after the epochal events of 1989 Eva Hoffman spent several months in her native Poland and four other countries the then Czechoslovakia Hungary Romania and Bulgaria She visited capital cities wayside villages and provincial towns stopped at shipyards museums and the coffee houses of the intelligentsia and talked to a great variety of people about the tumult they had lived through Exit into History was the result a portrait of the mosaic of the new Eastern Europe a reconstruction of the turbulent post war decades and a meditation on the uses and misuses of historical memory American Representations of Post-Communism Andalu Borcila, 2014-07-11

With the televised events of 1989 territories of Eastern and Central Europe that had been marked as impenetrable and inaccessible to the Western gaze exploded into visibility As the narratives of the Cold War crumbled new narratives emerged and new geographies were produced on and by American television Using an understudied archive of American news broadcasts and tracing their flashes and echoes through travel guides and narratives of return written by Eastern European Americans this book explores American ways of seeing and mapping communism s disintegration and the narratives articulated around post communist sites and subjects Ridpath's Universal History John Clark Ridpath, 1897
