History Beyond the Canon Jennifer Kaufmann-Buhler, Victoria Rose Pass, Christopher Wilson, 2019-02-07 Design History Beyond the Canon subverts hierarchies of taste which have dominated traditional narratives of design history The book explores a diverse selection of objects spaces and media ranging from high design to mass produced and mass marketed objects as well as counter cultural and sub cultural material The authors research highlights the often marginalised role of gender and racial identity in the production and consumption of design the politics which underpins design practice and the role of designed objects as pathways of nostalgia and cultural memory While focused primarily on North American examples from the early 20th century onwards this collection also features essays examining European and Soviet design history as well as the influence of Asia and Africa on Western design practice The book is organised in three thematic sections

Consumers Intermediaries and Designers The first section analyses a range of designed objects and spaces through the experiences and perspectives of users The second section considers intermediaries from both technology and cultural industries as well as the hidden labour within the design process itself The final section focuses on designers from multiple design disciplines including high fashion industrial design interior design graphic design and design history pedagogy The essays in all three sections utilise different research methods and a wide range of theoretical approaches including feminist theory critical race theory spatial theory material culture studies science and technology studies and art history Design History Beyond the Canon brings together the most recent research which stretches beyond the traditional canon and looks to interdisciplinary methodologies to better understand the practice and consumption of design American Indian

Beadwork in Middle North America and the Influence of European Materials and Patterns Jeannette H.

Henney, 1961 Rhapsodic Objects Yaelle Biro, Noemie Etienne, 2021-12-20 Circulation and imitation are key factors in shaping the material world The authors in this volume explore how technical knowledge immaterial desires and political agendas impact the production and consumption of visual and material culture across times and places Their essays map multidirectional transactions for cultural goods in which source countries can be positioned at the center Rhapsodic literally to stitch or weave songs paired with objects from thrown against intertwines complexity and action Rhapsodic objects thus beckons to the layered narratives of the objects themselves their making and their reception over time The concept further
