serving prime minister the Ojibway sniper who is credited with 378 wartime kills these are just some of the people and events discussed in these candid and wide ranging interviews with eleven authors whose novels are based on events in Canadian history These sometimes startling conversations take the reader behind the scenes of the novels and into the minds of their authors Through them we explore the writers motives for writing the challenges they faced in gathering information and presenting it in fictional form the sometimes hostile reaction they faced after publication and perhaps most interestingly the stories that didn t make it into their novels Speaking in the Past Tense provides fascinating insights into the construction of national historical narratives and myths both those familiar to us and those that are still being written

Out of the Dark Wesley W. Bates,2022-07-30 The exacting art of wood engraving is defined by presence and absence shadow and light black and white An arduous yet rewarding art form it requires an artistic eye and a dedication to technique in order to imbue each image with its own visual narrative Wood engraver Wesley W Bates the artist behind the acclaimed book The Point of the Graver demonstrates the power and precision of the form in his new collection Out of the Dark Bates brings to bear decades of experience deftly wielding his graver to coax vibrant and lifelike images from solid blocks of endgrain wood In so doing he frees each likeness not only from the blocks that hold them captive but also from the reaches of his prodigious imagination With a wide variety of engravings in Bates s unmistakable style and accompanying texts to bring the reader into the artist s studio Out of the Dark is a treat for all who appreciate the traditional form

Anne of Tim Hortons Herb Wylie,2011-04-25 Anne of Tim Hortons Globalization and the Reshaping of Atlantic Canadian Literature is a study of the work of over twenty contemporary Atlantic Canadian writers that counters the widespread impression of Atlantic Canada as a quaint and backward place By examining their treatment of work culture and history author Herb Wylie highlights how these writers resist the image of Atlantic Canadians as improvident and regressive if charming folk After an introduction that examines the current place of the region within the Canadian federation and the broader context of economic globalization Anne of Tim Hortons explores how Atlantic Canadian writers present a picture of the region that is much more complex and less quaint than the stereotypes through which it is typically viewed Through the works of authors such as Michael Winter Lisa Moore George Elliott Clarke Rita Joe Frank Barry Alistair MacLeod and Bernice Morgan among others the book looks at the changing and increasingly corporate nature of work the cultural diversification and subversive self consciousness of Atlantic Canadian literature and Atlantic Canadian writers often revisionist approach to the region s history What these writers are engaged in the book contends is a kind of collective readjustment of the image of the region Rather than a marginal place stranded outside of time Atlantic Canada in these works is very much caught up in contemporary economic political and cultural developments particularly the broad sweep of economic globalization
