The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context Laura Savu Walker, 2015-11-19 The Good Life and the Greater Good in a Global Context offers a timely contribution to the debates about the good life that surround us every day in the media politics the humanities and social sciences The authors examine the relationship between the good life and the greater good as represented across different genres media cultures and disciplines This enables them to develop a framework of values that transcends the overly rational and individualistic model of the good life advanced by neoliberalism and the happiness industry Thus over and against normative conceptualizations of the good life that reduce meaning to money creativity to consumption and compassion to self help the contributors propose an ethically charged philosophy of living that views the care for the self for the other and for the planet as the catalysts of true human flourishing In addition to recovering the original usage of the good life from classical thought especially the Aristotelian understanding of eudaimonia as living well and doing well the essays gathered here highlight its entanglement with distinctly modern ideas of happiness wellbeing flourishing progress revolution democracy the American Dream utopia and sustainability As such the essays capture the breadth and depth of the conversation about the good life that is of central importance to how we relate to the past engage the present and envision the future

The Animated Dad Lorin Shahinian, Leslie Salas, 2024-01-11 The Homer Simpson esque stereotype has been a persistent trope in cartoons since programming aimed directly at children and adolescents began Young viewers are exposed to the incapable and incompetent hapless father archetype on a regular basis causing both boys and girls to expect the bare minimum of fathers while mothers hold the responsibility for all domestic and parenting work Cartoons rely heavily on toxic stereotypes for ratings when in fact healthy representations of fathers are just as successful in maintaining viewership Eleven essays written by scholars from around the world investigate the topic of fatherhood as it is represented in children s animated television shows Main themes that emerge include absent and negligent fathers single fathers generational shifts within families and raising the standard of fathering by creating secure bonds between father and child The authors uncover problematic fathers imperfect yet redemptive fathers and fathers who embody idealized parenting traits through some of our most beloved animated dads This collection demonstrates the impact that media representations of father figures have on young viewers and argues for better role models

Filthy Rich Tim Malloy, James Patterson, John Connolly, 2016 A shocking true crime tale of money power and sex from the world s most popular thriller writer Jeffrey Epstein rose from humble origins to the rarefied heights of New York City s financial elite A college dropout with an instinct for numbers and for people Epstein amassed his wealth through a combination of access and skill But even after he had it all Epstein wanted more And that unceasing desire especially a taste for young girls resulted in his stunning fall from grace From Epstein himself to the girls he employed as masseuses at his home to the cops investigating the appalling charges against him FILTHY RICH examines all sides of a case that scandalized one of America s richest communities An explosive true story FILTHY RICH is a riveting account of wealth power and the influence they bring to bear on the American justice system The Rich Rich Alan Jenkins,1978 The Official Filthy Rich Handbook Christopher Tennant,2008-01-01 A hilarious guide to the world of the very rich furnishes whimsical advice on how to live large in the land of plenty covering everything from the difference between a butler and a majordomo to guidelines on bodyguards cosmetic procedures and the world s best party locales Original Disillusionment and Alienation in Hamid's selected works Farheen Shakir,2017-01-30 Examination Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade A course M A ENGLISH language English abstract The present research aims at exploring the themes of disillusionment and alienation with regard to the construction of identity in two postcolonial novels by Pakistani author Mohsin Hamid s Moth Smoke MS 2000 and How to Get Filthy Rich in Rising Asia HGFERRA 2013 taking theoretical insights from the works of Karl Marx 1883 Homi K Bhabha 1994 and others A common thread running through these novels is the juxtapositioning of estrangement and alienation while fighting for the basic right of getting prospects to thrive in life How the cultural and identity conflicts in developing Asia emerged as the reason for personal estrangement of characters from reality how the protagonists were found to be fragmented and how they used underhand ways to get rich is explored in Hamid s selected works Rotten School #11: Punk'd and Skunked R.L.
